

Johnson to Be: Man in a Hurry, in '64

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — This should be a year of spectaculars certainly at home, maybe abroad.

At home — the presidential race, with all that means; abroad — the possibility of a summit conference and a grinding Russian-Chinese break.

President Johnson has to achieve in one year what the late President John F. Kennedy had three years to work at: public approval through public exposure; and public approval through public performance.

Johnson, in the time left before the campaign, can't match the amount of public exposure Kennedy got in speeches, trips, banquets, and appearances before news and television cameras as practically every day.

But he's working at it, and working overtime, to create a favorable image of himself as a busy-busy president: at the White House, on trips, walks, tours of his ranch and picture posing.

There'll be lots more of this. Johnson is a man in a hurry. Since he is so obviously seeking to stay in the public eye, coming as he does from the relative obscurity of the vice presidency, a summit conference with Soviet Premier Khrushchev would snatch the world's attention like nothing else.

And, if it turned out half-well, it would snatch the word's approval. That's why such a meeting seems a strong possibility.

Spa Student Dies in Car Accident

APPOMATTOX, Va. (AP) — Jeannine Gibbs, 23, of Hot Springs, Ark., was killed Wednesday when the car in which she was riding skidded off Virginia Highway 24 four miles east of Vera and crashed into a tree.

Philip Garland Lockard, 32, of Newport, Ark., another passenger in the car, was listed in very poor condition Wednesday night at a Lynchburg, Va., hospital.

State Police said the car skidded out of control on a patch of ice, jumped over a small embankment and struck the tree. Trooper A. S. Powell said chains had been removed from the car shortly before the crash.

Miss Gibbs and Lockard were with a group of students from the Presbyterian School of Christian Education at Richmond.

Begin Attack on Viet Nam Guerrillas

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Vietnamese Marines and Rangers combed three provinces near Saigon today as the first major operation of the year against the Communist Viet Cong got under way.

No big contact with the guerrillas was reported in any of the areas northwest of Saigon where government forces are converging.

An Air Force sergeant became the first 1964 U.S. casualty of the war when the pin of a phosphorous grenade he was carrying accidentally pulled out Wednesday. He was admitted to the hospital with burns over 20 per cent of his body. His condition was described as serious. His name was not made public.

A U.S. enlisted man was wounded Tuesday when Viet Cong guerrillas fired mortar rounds into a Ranger encampment west of Saigon.

A Viet Nam press broadcast monitored in Tokyo today said 20 Viet Cong guerrillas were killed and 20 others captured by South Vietnamese troops in an operation launched Dec. 12. The broadcast said there were no casualties among the government troops in that operation.

Mrs. Morris Gets Gold Service Pin

Mrs. G. B. Morris received a gold retirement pin from the Selective Service System December 31 in recognition of her service to the department for over 21 years. She had previously received a silver pin on two separate occasions for similar recognition. Mrs. Morris was chief clerk of Local Board 29 from its inception until her retirement last spring.

New Year's Traffic Toll Is 200 Lives

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Holiday traffic killed 223 Americans during the 48 hours of New Year's Eve and New Year's Day.

Delayed reports from states were expected to increase the death count which safety experts said was greater than anticipated.

The toll was less than the two-day Christmas period but higher than the seasonal average.

The two holidays were tabulated for the first time on a 48-hour basis. Because a 30-hour period formerly was used, no comparable fatality counts were available for comparison.

The New Year's toll compared with an average of 117 traffic deaths a day during the first 11 months of 1963. But it was much greater than the latest available seasonal average for a December Tuesday, 95, and a January Wednesday, 68 — a combined toll of 163.

The National Safety Council had estimated in advance of the holiday that between 140 and 180 persons might be killed in traffic mishaps from 6 p.m. New Year's Eve to midnight Wednesday — a 30-hour period.

Council President Howard Pyle said Wednesday night that the final figures "definitely will go beyond this estimate." The Associated Press count showed that nearly 200 traffic fatalities were reported during the 30-hour period defined by the council.

There were 316 highway deaths during last week's 48-hour Christmas holiday while 382 persons died in traffic accidents during the 1962-63 New Year's weekend holiday of four days.

The holiday traffic death toll compared to a total of 170 fatalities reported in an Associated Press survey for a nonholiday period of 48 hours, from 12:01 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 10 to 12:01 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 12.

30 Arkansas Construction Jobs Struck

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Work is expected to stop today on approximately 30 Central Arkansas projects because an agreement could not be reached Wednesday between Iron Workers Local 321 and the Arkansas Chapter of the Associated General Contractors.

The Iron Workers' contract expired at midnight Tuesday after contract talks bogged down. Local members were not expected to report for work today.

A federal mediator has been consulting with the union in an effort to reach an agreement. The AGC also failed to reach an agreement Wednesday with Carpenters Local 690 and the union had not responded Wednesday night to an AGC contract offer.

A work stoppage by both unions would affect an estimated 50 projects in Central Arkansas and would idle 2,000 workers. The unions are seeking a two-and-a-half year contract and the AGC wants to continue a three-year contract.

Reynolds Names New Manager

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Julian A. Fuller of Little Rock has been appointed manager of Arkansas mining operations for the Reynolds Mining Corp. Fuller is a native of Adelaide, Australia and attended the Cambridge School of Mines at Cornwall, England. He holds bachelor's and masters degrees in mining engineering from the Missouri School of Mines at Rolla, Mo.

Fuller joined Reynolds in 1947 and is married and has three children.

Bauxite from Reynolds' Arkansas mines is processed into aluminum at the Reynolds Metals Co. plant at Hurricane Creek.

Cyprus Will Try to Oust the Turks

By ALEX EFTY
NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — British mediator Duncan Sandys made repeated calls on President Archbishop Makarios of Cyprus today in the wake of Makarios' announcement Wednesday that he intends to call for abrogation of the 1960 treaties linking Cyprus with Britain, Greece and Turkey.

In Athens, the Greek Cabinet met on the continuing crisis in this island nation and asked for an extraordinary and immediate meeting of the Atlantic Alliance's council in Paris.

The feuding parties on Cyprus are Greek-speaking and Turkish-speaking Cypriots and both Greece and Turkey are members of the Atlantic Alliance, as is Britain.

In London, Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home summoned the British Cabinet for an extraordinary session Friday just after he heard a report

6 GOP Men Bolt Senate on Medicare

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
WASHINGTON (AP) — Six Republican senators say they hope to crack the stalemate on health care for the aged legislation by introducing their own plan when Congress reconvenes next week.

They described it as the most comprehensive health care program ever prepared for Congress and said it would make use of both Social Security funds and general government revenues, and private insurance companies.

Health-care legislation will likely set off one of the big battles in Congress this election year.

President Johnson is expected to press hard for passage of the bill — or a version of it — which the late President John F. Kennedy was unable to push through Congress.

The six Republicans said in a statement Wednesday that GOP votes will be needed to pass a health care bill this year and "we sincerely believe that the bill we are preparing will offer the effective basis for such an agreement."

"We feel," they added, "that the health care needs of our 18 million citizens over 65 have been too long neglected, and that the Congress must resolve this problem in 1964."

The six Republicans are Sens. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey, John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, Jacob K. Javits and Kenneth B. Keating of New York, Thomas H. Kuchel of California and Margaret Chase Smith of Maine.

The senators' statement said their plan would provide hospitalization, nursing care and home care for all citizens 65 and over through Social Security financing or from general federal revenues if the person is not covered by Social Security.

It would also permit health insurance companies to team up and offer a nonprofit mass plan for low-cost insurance to cover doctor bills and other medical expenses. Antitrust laws now do not permit such private combinations.

Mr. K. Sends Message to Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev sent a personal message to President Johnson today in the midst of increasing talk on both sides of the East-West conflict about an easing of cold war tensions during the new year.

Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin met with Secretary of State Dean Rusk for 15 minutes, then told newsmen: "I delivered a personal message from the chairman (Khrushchev) to the President."

He declined to discuss the contents, other than to indicate that the nature of the message would be made known shortly. A report from London said the Soviet government was delivering notes in several Western capitals dealing with the need for peaceful settlement of territorial disputes.

Truck Overtakes and Kills Man

HARRISBURG, Ark. (AP) — Tommy Holt, 39, of Bay Village in Poinsett County, died Wednesday after his pickup truck left the road eight miles east of Harrisburg and struck an embankment.

Sheriff's deputies said the truck landed on top of Holt and he spent several hours trying to crawl from beneath it.

British See Emergency in Cyprus

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home has summoned the cabinet to an urgent meeting Thursday presumably to discuss the Cyprus crisis.

An announcement from No. 10 Downing St. tonight said Sir Alec is interrupting his New Year holiday in Scotland for the meeting.

Commonwealth Secretary Duncan Sandys is flying home from Nicosia to report to the prime minister on his peace mission in Cyprus before the cabinet meets.

Sandys flew to the troubled Mediterranean island Friday in an effort to mediate between warring Greek and Turkish-speaking Cypriots.

Government informants said it is not certain Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler will be able to attend the cabinet discussion. He is stormbound on the Scottish island of Mull, where he is spending the holidays.

He Beat the Army, But Not Bowl Jinx

DALLAS (AP) — At the banquet following the Cotton Bowl game, Wayne Hardin was introduced as "the only Navy coach who ever has beaten Army five straight."

The red-haired Hardin smiled and said: "Don't forget that Navy has only lost two bowl games in history, and I was the coach both times."

2 Children Drown Under Ice in Pond

STRONG, Ark. (AP) — A 12-year-old Negro and her 9-year-old brother drowned in an ice-covered pond near their farm home six miles southeast of Strong Wednesday.

They were Virgie Dell and Will Ell Craig.

Officers said Will and another brother, John Junior, were going after firewood when Will went out on the ice to get a stick.

They said the ice on the pond broke and Will disappeared beneath it. John Junior ran to the house for help, officers said, and Virgie Dell drowned trying to rescue Will.

Both bodies were recovered about an hour later by the Strong Civil Defense Rescue unit. They were found in about six feet of water. Dr. J. H. Pinnson, Union County Coroner, ruled accidental death by drowning.

P. Whitten Dies; Funeral at 10 Friday

Pomroy Whitten a retired pharmacist, died in a local hospital Wednesday. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Dan Meckstroth of Cleveland; three nephews, Dr. Dolphus Whitten, Oklahoma City; Horace Whitten, Schriever, La.; and Carl Richard Meckstroth, New York City, and one niece, Mrs. Clark Brown of Cleveland.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Friday in the Oakcrest Chapel with the Rev. Raymond Franks and the Rev. Galdwin Connell officiating. Interment will be in the Murrefreesboro cemetery under the direction of Oakcrest.

Honorary pallbearers will be the members of the Century Bible Class of the First Methodist Church.

Car Derails, 'Frisco Man Badly Hurt

Terrel Jones, white, 35, a 'Frisco railway employee, was critically injured about 4 p.m. Wednesday when his motor car left the rails north of town as he was returning to Hope from work.

He was found unconscious by two local deer hunters, Homer Adams and his son Jerry, who brought him to Branch General Hospital. Today he was taken to Sparks Memorial Hospital at Fort Smith. He has a fractured skull, and possibly internal injuries, and has been unconscious ever since the accident.

Mr. Jones' home is in Greenwood, Ark., but he had been working out of Hope for the last three months.

Big Show for Castro on in Cuba

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Fidel Castro declared today that the Alliance for Progress is doomed to failure while at the same time "the Cuban revolution progresses."

The U. S. plan to assist Latin American countries the prime minister said, addressing throngs in Havana on the fifth anniversary of his takeover, "wants to maintain the same rhythm of things."

Castro declared "the past can never return," and hailed his five years in power as a "victory against Yankee imperialism."

Speaking of the Alliance for Progress, he said: "The imperialists talk about assigning resources to build a few little schools and for some public works."

"They send out peace corps that are really spy corps."

"All these things are destined to the most absolute failure."

Castro's speech, monitored here, followed an hour-long parade of Cuba's military might, considered the most powerful in Latin America.

Castro boasted of modern military equipment.

"With those arms," he declared, "we can fight against the best equipped forces of the imperialist army of the United States."

By DANIEL HARKER Associated Press Writer

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro reviewed a parade of Cuban armed forces today in celebration of the fifth anniversary of his overthrow of dictator Fulgencio Batista.

Top government officials, diplomats and foreign visitors sat with the bearded prime minister on the rostrum.

Thousands of Cubans lined the sidewalks to watch the display of military hardware and marching units. The parade lasted 65 minutes.

Soviet-built MIG21 fighters flew overhead.

Castro planned a major policy speech, probably pegged to his government's theme that 1964 is "the year of the economy," an all-out battle to increase production.

Visiting Communist delegates from Europe, Asia and Latin America were to join Castro on the parade reviewing stand. The Soviet delegation is led by Nikolai Podgorny, a secretary of the Soviet Communist party and a member of its Presidium.

In a new year's greeting to Castro, Soviet Premier Khrushchev and President Leonid Brezhnev promised: "We again declare that revolutionary Cuba will not remain alone if it is attacked by United States aggressive military circles."

Castro said Wednesday night he believed President Kennedy was "beginning to think of the possibilities of normalization of relations" between the United States and Cuba before he was assassinated Nov. 22.

In a Havana-to-New York telephone interview with ABC he said he wanted to normalize Cuba's relations with the United States but "it belongs to the United States government to take the next step to help that normalization."

"But of course, it can never be over conditions of renouncing our political ideas," Castro said. "Never can we renounce our Marxism."

For 1964 Hal Boyle Is Giving Up All the Things He Doesn't Like Anyway

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Perfection is not gained by a single vow.

Nor is it necessarily achieved by a thousand righteous self-promises.

That is the mistake many people make when the time comes for those annual New Year resolutions.

"I hereby resolve—" they say putting pen to paper. Then they scribble down a seemingly endless series of vows to do better, vows that would tax the performance of a saint in a long and dedicated lifetime.

Instead of trying to cut down the forest of his faults all at once, why not first start by merely clearing away a bit of the underbrush? Instead of vowing what you're going to do, why not vow to do without?

Anyway, that's the way we've decided to improve ourselves during the coming year.

What are we going to give up? Oh, lots and lots of things.

We're going to pare life down to the true clean bone.

As a starter, we're going to give up hula hoops, yo-yos, and dancing the Charleston.

We're going to go right on doing without cigarettes and go right on smoking cigars.

We're giving up caviar—hate the stuff anyway — and pink champagne.

As to those four — martini, three-hour lunches, we're jettisoning them for sure. A man who can't eat his fill during a two-hour lunch is probably wasting too much time talking and not paying enough attention to his plate.

We're going to give up kissing pretty girls in the office locker room. After all, by the time a fellow manages to chase and corner one, he's too tuckered out to enjoy the fun.

We're going to quit telling the boss how to run the firm. When you come right down to it, isn't he really entitled to make his own mistakes in his own inimitable way?

We're going to quit promising to take our wife out at least one evening a week. All this year we're going to promise to take her out at least two evenings a week. Maybe even three. When it comes to promising, why be a tightwad?

Those are a few of our goals for 1964. Already we feel much, much better.

A little self-denial is good for any man. But not too much. A fellow who becomes perfect all of a sudden becomes a stranger to himself, and who wants to live with a stranger?

Plane Dives Into Flight of Wild Ducks

CROSSETT, Ark. (AP) — A Crossett duck hunting party managed to get more than its limit of ducks Wednesday and at the same time found that ducks and airplanes don't mix.

Jack Stell and two companions were on their way to Stuttgart, Ark., in Stell's single-engine airplane for some duck hunting when they ran into a flight of ducks sooner than expected — high over the Arkansas River near Stuttgart.

Ducks came crashing into the plane's cabin with the passengers. They collided with the wings, strut, tail, wheels, propeller, and they literally filled up the engine.

The landing lights and windshield were broken out, the struts and leading edges of the wings and tail were damaged, the propeller spinner was crushed into the propeller and the ice cooler was broken open, spilling out the engine oil.

Stell, manager of the Crossett Airport and a veteran of many flying hours, turned the plane about and began looking for an open field in which to make an emergency landing.

The plane's engine froze from lack of oil before Stell could find the field and after an unsuccessful attempt to land on the highway, he set down on an ice-covered cotton field, skidding across the rows at a 15-degree angle.

The plane's nose wheel sheared off in the landing and the craft nosed over but didn't overturn. The three men looked at each other and each thought the other two had been seriously hurt. All were covered with blood and feathers.

When they began checking they found only two injuries. One man had a broken fingernail and the other had two minor scratches.

"It was a one-in-a-million experience," Stell said. "It was one of those things you shudder to think about after it's all over."

Needless to say, all three had seen all they wanted of ducks for quite a while.

Bald Eagle Count Begun in State

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The National Audubon Society is taking its annual January census of bald eagle population in Arkansas, and seeking the help of anyone sighting one of the now rare birds.

Last January sportsmen and others counted 137 bald eagles in the state, a slight rise from the number spotted the year before.

Cleveland Cabler of Little Rock, coordinator of the census, said the bald eagles migrate less during January.

Cabler said sightings of the eagles should be reported to him, in care of the Audubon Society, at 2504 Battery St., Little Rock.

The first baby born in Hempstead county in the new year was a son, to Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie R. Norman of Washington. He arrived at Hempstead Memorial Hospital in Hope at 3:27 a.m. New Year's Day.

Post Office Dept. Will Drop 5,000

By FRANK CORMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson got a pledge from Postmaster General John A. Gronowski today that the postal payroll will be cut by 5,000 workers within the next six months.

Gronowski, after a meeting with Johnson, told a news conference that this and other moves, including a proposed $77-million hike in parcel post rates, will result in a cut of $100 million in the annual postal deficit.

The department chief said the economies may require some reduction of postal service. But he said these would not be significant.

Johnson turned his attention to domestic concerns after an aide reported Wednesday that the President favors an unrelenting peace offensive in 1964. In this connection, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev sent Johnson a new 20-page personal note today.

Gronowski made these major announcements at his meeting with newsmen at White House press headquarters in Austin.

He has ordered a reduction by June 30 of 5,000 postal workers—a move that would drop the total number to 590,000. He said no employees would be fired but that some who quit or retire will not be replaced.

The postal deficit for the 1963 fiscal year which begins July 1 will be about $100 million lower than the fiscal 1964 deficit, estimated at $650 million.

The department's fiscal 1965 budget will be $200 million lower than the total originally sought by postal officials.

There will be a sharp cut-back in plans to expand and modernize postal facilities. The department will seek only $10 million for such purposes in 1964, compared with the 1963 appropriation of $43 million.

The subject of Khrushchev's note was not made public immediately.

The holiday White House had no immediate comment on the note. However, Johnson is understood to favor an unrelenting peace offensive in 1964.

Marlbrook Will Hear Missionary

Mr. W. R. (Jack) Hull, Missionary to Kenya from the tribe of Mau Mau, will be guest speaker at the Marlbrook Baptist Church, three miles east of Bleivins, Sunday, January 5, at the 11 o'clock service.

A pot-luck lunch will follow.

Ex-Suitor Wields Axe and Kills 3

SMALLWOOD, N.Y. (AP) — The killer, ax in hand, waited in a closet.

He heard his victims return home late from New Year's Eve parties, waited for them to finish coffee and go to bed.

At dawn he crept into a bedroom and chopped Joseph McAdams, 49, to death as he slept.

Next he went upstairs, where McAdams' daughter and a girl friend, Judith Meddough, 19, were sleeping in twin beds. He killed Miss Meddough with his ax and strangled Florence McAdams, 20, into unconsciousness, leaving her for dead.

Then he called police.

State police say that's the account they pieced together after an anonymous telephone call and then one from Miss McAdams, who told them in a panic-stricken voice that the killer was standing on the front lawn.

As police sped to the scene they spotted a man on a road near the McAdams house. They said he was Frank S. Scaramuzzo, 24, an Army private from nearby Monticello, N.Y. He

Meanwhile, talk without performance at home will be an empty achievement, and probably a self-defeating one. Johnson will have to try, and try harder than Kennedy ever did, to get some major legislation through Congress.

He's not as mild as Kennedy and for that reason is apt to get into some harrowing disputes with congressional leaders, an embroilment Kennedy always avoided.

Kennedy's technique, however, was not very productive in getting Congress to do what he wanted. A different, harsher technique might be more effective.

Yet, Johnson stands a chance of hurting himself if he gets too rough. He doesn't have Kennedy's ease or grace. A fight creates enemies and gives the impression of a man in trouble.

Kennedy made an effort to appear both calm and in full control, even when Congress frustrated and ignored him. But the Kennedy technique of no fights with Congress was simply a repetition of President Eisenhower's technique.

The result was 10 years of placidity in relations between the White House and Congress. There hasn't been a good brawl since the days of President Truman.

But all this is only half the picture of 1964.

The Republicans' presidential hopefuls will have a double chore, too: knocking one another out of the race while trying to scuttle Johnson.

Kennedy, after three years of building public confidence in his leadership, could have relaxed a bit under attack until the Republicans had picked their candidate and the race was under way.

Johnson can enjoy no such luxury. Besides, it's probably not in his nature to grin and bear it. He has a struggle every inch of the way to election day.

Since he's not a man who takes criticism lightly, what's ahead for him is enough to heat up any politician. He not only has to make a record for himself but then defend it and defend Kennedy's record as a Democratic leader, too.

The fact that Kennedy was so obviously well-liked might have taken some of the spirit, and much of the fight, out of his Republican opponents. But the brand-new Johnson is fresh meat for them.

This could well be the roughest and most unpleasant presidential race since Truman beat New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in 1948.

But Johnson has one enormous advantage over the Republicans: As president he can stay in focus every day.

Cyprus Will

from Sandys on his return from Nicosia.

As the diplomatic maneuvering continued, a cease-fire continued in Nicosia for the fourth day without renewed fighting.

Charging Turkey with "aggressive actions" in the communal strife between Greek and Turkish Cypriots, Makarios announced Wednesday night he would seek to dissolve agreements under which Britain, Greece and Turkey guarantee Cyprus' sovereignty.

The treaties with all three governments are interlocked, and all three must be abrogated to get rid of the agreement with Turkey. But Makarios and other members of his government have made plain the Turkish government is the object of their ire.

The action came amid fresh bloodshed on the 12th day since strife between the island's Greek majority and Turkish minority turned violent. Three monks were killed and another three wounded in a raid Wednesday on a Greek Orthodox monastery 25 miles southwest of Nicosia. Survivors said five or six Turkish Cypriots made the raid.

Britain, now acting as peace-maker and policeman for its former colony, feared new reprisals by Turkish Cypriots if Makarios upsets the delicately arranged treaties without consultation with all sides.

Martin to Be Argentine Envoy

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson plans to nominate Edwin M. Martin, a veteran Foreign Service officer, as ambassador to Argentina.

The 55-year-old native of Dayton, Ohio, will succeed Robert McClintock, who, in turn, "is expected to be appointed to another important post in the near future," a White House announcement said Wednesday.

He said his government stood by the treaties and promised "we will take every measure for their literal application."

Times Square New Year's Crowd Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Revelry, prayer and hopeful messages of peace marked the start of the new year around the world.

Times Square had its biggest crowd in years for the countdown to 1964 — an estimated 300,000. A few blocks away, 3,000 persons dined and danced in Grand Central Terminal in one of the largest New Year's Eve parties. It was a benefit ball for the National Association for Mental Health.

Fireworks illuminated the skies over the Berlin wall. Parisians leaned on automobile horns on the Champs Elysees. Spaniards ate 12 grapes at midnight. Italians threw crockery from windows. And residents of Buenos Aires tossed tons of ticker tape and old calendars from windows.

President Johnson walked out the old year at one of four parties he attended in Austin, Tex. He returned to his ranch near Johnson City, Tex., less than an hour later.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev raised a toast at a Kremlin party and sent traditional New Year's messages to world leaders.

Pope Paul VI began the new year with a Mass in his private chapel. At noon he told a throng of 30,000 in St. Peter's Square the new year "seems to inspire serene wishes of peace and well-being for all."

In Japan, temple bells tolled out the old year. Japanese offered traditional first prayers of the new year.

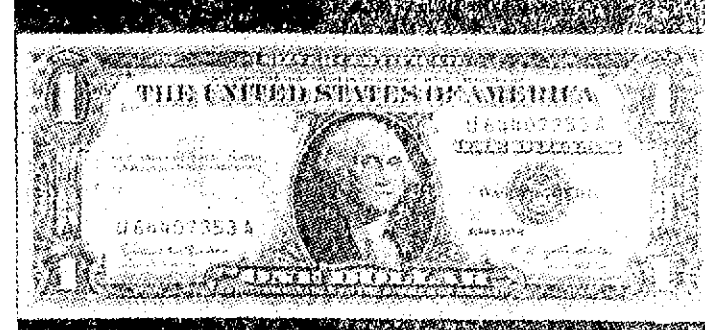

Seeks Post of Late Sen. Allen

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. John D. Miller, 42, of Brinkley filed today as a candidate for state senator from 26th Arkansas Senatorial District, a position left vacant by the death of Sen. Tom Allen.

Miller, an optometrist, signed a corrupt practices pledge and a Democratic party loyalty oath in the office of Secretary of State Kelly Bryant.

He said this is his first venture into state politics, though he is serving his second four-year term as a Brinkley city director. Miller is a native of Paragould.

He will seek Post No. 2 in the district, which Allen held.

NO SILVER IN THEM THAR BILLS—The Treasury Department has placed a new dollar bill in circulation. It has no silver backing and is the first change in the dollar bill since 1957 when the motto "In God We Trust" was added. While the face of the new bill has the same reassuring portrait of George Washington, all references to silver above and below his portrait have been deleted. (New bill at top). The more than 50 million new bills will free the government stockpile of silver bullion for coins.

52 Paroled by Arkansas Pardon Board

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Fifty-two prisoners were paroled New Year's Day by the state Pardons and Paroles Board.

Miller, an optometrist, signed a corrupt practices pledge and a Democratic party loyalty oath in the office of Secretary of State Kelly Bryant.

He said this is his first venture into state politics, though he is serving his second four-year term as a Brinkley city director. Miller is a native of Paragould.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus recommended executive clemency for nine of the group.

Two of those to be released were convicted murderers.

They were R. L. Conyers, sentenced in 1954 in Clay County Circuit Court to 30 years for first degree murder. The other was Andrew Patterson, sentenced to seven years by Lenoire Circuit Court in September 1961 on second degree murder charges.

Conyers will be released Jan. 8, and Patterson will be released Jan. 7.

Mummers parade as civil rights groups threatened demonstrations against blackface comic participants.

Louis Smith, northeast regional chairman of the Congress of Racial Equality said Tuesday night his organization would have pickets at the parade.

Other chapters of CORE, including one from Brooklyn, planned to join the demonstration. Also planning to take part was the Committee for Freedom Now of nearby Chester.

Smith's statement came after a meeting with the Philadelphia Human Relations Commission and religious leaders who pleaded non-violence.

Police Inspector Albert J. Trimmer canceled New Year's leaves for 1,000 policemen to augment the customary annual Mummers parade detail. Members of special investigations, narcotics and labor squads were assigned to the parade route.

Police Commissioner Howard Leary said precautions were being taken to "prevent the possibility of the parade being halted by any groups in any way violent or non-violent."

"The parade will go on," added Leary, explaining that there is no law against appearing in public in blackface makeup. "Law abiding citizens will be permitted to do what the law allows without interference from any outside group."

INTRODUCE YOURSELF TO THE

OF TOTAL ELECTRIC LIVING

There's a whole new year ahead of you . . . a year in which you may make a wonderful discovery . . . of the fun and happiness of living in a modern Total Electric Home! For one thing, it's easy to get acquainted with the JOY of Total Electric living because all it involves is just one of the happy-living appliances — maybe a new Flameless Range. You see, electric cooking is so fast and so simple that the whole family will want to get into the act! And since it's Flameless, it's naturally cleaner . . . kitchen walls, woodwork and curtains stay fresher and new-looking longer.

But wonderful appliances are only a part of the JOY that comes to you in a Total Electric Home. There's the beauty of well-designed Light for Living, the conveniences afforded by Reddy Housepower for every conceivable need and the clean solid comfort of economical Flameless Heating. In all of 1964, you couldn't discover anything of more value to you and your family than the JOY of Total Electric living!

Donna Arum,
Arkansas' Miss America,
personifies the JOY
of Total Electric living!

Martin to Be Argentine Envoy

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson plans to nominate Edwin M. Martin, a veteran Foreign Service officer, as ambassador to Argentina.

The 55-year-old native of Dayton, Ohio, will succeed Robert McClintock, who, in turn, "is expected to be appointed to another important post in the near future," a White House announcement said Wednesday.

He said his government stood by the treaties and promised "we will take every measure for their literal application."

Whittington Test Is Set for Spa Only

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Circuit Judge P. E. Dobbs ruled today that David Whittington Jr., charged with murder, could be examined in Hot Springs by private psychiatrists, but that he could not be taken to Little Rock for the examinations.

Whittington, 19, son of Prosecutor David Whittington, is charged in the Oct. 12 beating death of Mrs. Carolyn Brazil of Hot Springs.

State Hospital doctors found him without psychosis.

Dobbs said he could be examined privately at a Hot Springs hospital by two Little Rock psychiatrists the defense has hired.

Whittington will go on trial Feb. 6.

Former Gov. Sid McMath joined a team of defense attorneys today. The other lawyers for Whittington are state Rep. Ray S. Smith Jr. and James W. Chesnut.

Goldwater's Decision Is Due Friday

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona will announce Friday his decision on entering the race for the Republican presidential nomination. Many political observers are convinced he will enter the contest.

Goldwater's announcement will come at an 11 a.m. news conference. Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York is the only announced candidate.

Newsmen from throughout the country have gathered for the conference at Goldwater's Phoenix home, where the senator has been nursing a foot from which a bone spur was removed.

Boy Pulls Door Down on Firemen

NEW YORK (AP) — Just trying to be helpful, a 12-year-old fire buff closed the overhead door of a firehouse as a hook and ladder truck was leaving Wednesday night.

The door landed on the windshield of the rear river's seat, injuring tillerman Joseph Almon, 38.

Firemen said the boy who tripped the lever closing the door often visits the firehouse. They called the incident an accident.

Pope Goes to Holy Land on Saturday

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican and the Italian government worked today on final details for Pope Paul VI's flight to the Holy Land Saturday.

The Italian government planned a big send-off for the Roman Catholic pontiff as the head of the tiny Vatican state.

A squadron of Italian air force F84 jet fighters was assigned to escort the Pope's special Alitalia Airlines jetliner to international waters. The military planes also will greet the Pope's return flight from Jordan and Israel Monday.

Romans who attended New Year's Day masses at churches along the papal route to the airport were told the time to gather to cheer the pontiff on his way.

Bells in Rome's 450 churches will peal at the moment of take-off.

Pope Paul was in the midst of a 3-day period of intensified prayer to prepare for his historic trip.

An afternoon spiritual retreat, or period of withdrawal from normal routine to pray and meditate, was scheduled in a Vatican chapel for the three cardinals and 30 other Vatican aides who will accompany the pontiff.

The Pope, in an appearance before a New Year's Day crowd of 30,000 in St. Peter's Square, said his trip "may have an impact for many years to come."

"We will remember you and will pray for God to give you grace," he said.

Rocky Gets Plane for Campaign

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has a new airplane that is geared to keep pace with his expanded political activity.

The Fairchild 27 turbo-prop, was purchased jointly about two weeks ago by the millionaire governor and his brothers, Laurence and David, a spokesman said Wednesday.

The spokesman said the plane has a range of about 2,000 miles, a top speed of about 300 miles an hour and can carry 22 passengers.

Rockefeller is seeking the Republican presidential nomination.

Greece Asks Meeting of Alliance

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — The new caretaker government met today on the Cyprus crisis and authoritative sources said it had asked for an extraordinary meeting of the Atlantic Alliance's Permanent Council in Paris.

Shortly after the Greek Cypriot-Turkish Cypriot rivalry on Cyprus exploded into violence last month, the Greek government asked for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization meeting. Later it withdrew the request when it appeared the conflict was being resolved.

Now the crisis appears to be heating up again.

Sources said the NATO committee was expected to take up the Cyprus issue in Paris this afternoon.

Free Funeral Offer Turns Out Success

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP) — Radio station KFXM was satisfied today its New Year's Eve safety campaign—accented by offering free funerals to traffic victims—was a success.

None of the approximately 225 persons who signed up for the offer collected. The deadline was 12:01 a.m. Wednesday.

Air Force Seeks Non-Stop Record

MADRID, Spain (AP) — The U.S. Air Force on Jan. 6 will try to top a record for nonstop flight by a squadron of F104 jet fighters. Officials said the 476th Squadron will fly 7,500 miles from George Air Force Base, Calif., to the Strategic Air Command base at Moron, near Sevilla.

Atom Warheads Reach Canada

NORTH BAY, Ont. (AP) — The first 28 nuclear warheads for Canada's Bomarc anti-aircraft missiles have arrived on station at North Bay, 180 miles north of Toronto.

The San Bernardino-Riverside counties area which the station serves had no New Year's Eve traffic fatalities.

"We certainly consider it a success," said Bob Bunnell, station manager. "Only one person called up to complain that the idea was in bad taste. The others thought it was a great idea."

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP) — The Burlington Free Press said none of the 17 merry-makers who registered in its novel holiday safety promotion earned a free funeral.

The Free Press had offered a free funeral to anyone who planned to drink and drive on New Year's Eve.

This was the third year of the program for the newspaper and it has yet to pay off.

Bowl Parades Charm AP Commentator

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Parades and football viewing has become such a New Year's Day tradition that it is hard to remember what we used to do in the old, pre-television days. Attend oggins parties and take afternoon naps, I guess.

Wednesday's Tournament of Roses Parade was as usual an eye-filling spectacle, although I suspect that those who saw it only in black and white missed about 80 per cent of the fun.

Both networks did splendid jobs of covering the parade. My personal choice was NBC mostly because Betty White has done the running commentary so many times she seems as at home at her Pasadena microphone as she is in her own kitchen. Arthur Godfrey the crooner, was so impressed with the parade animals he couldn't seem to concentrate on anything else.

Along with the football games that followed, it was all very gala and a nice way to start a new year.

Ed Sullivan, during his quick European trip to tape Begum's singing nun, "Soeur Sourire," doing among other numbers, her popular record, "Dominique," found himself at the Dominican order's mother house in Waterloo in a heavy winter fog.

"If it is possible," replied the nun, "would you instead send a small jeep to our Dominican missionaries in Luluabourg. Because of the torrential rains, a jeep with curtains would be most preferred. If this is not asking too much."

And of course, it will be done. The tape will be seen on Sunday's Ed Sullivan hour on CBS. Recommended tonight: Victor Borge special, ABC, 9-10 (Eastern Standard Time) music and comedy program.

Jordan Warm to Pope, Cool to Israel

JERUSALEM, Jordan Sec- tor (AP) — Jordan's Moslem ruler King Hussein, said today the pilgrimage of Pope Paul VI to the Holy Land will "highlight the affinity between the two great religions" of Islam and Christianity. But he ruled out any possibility that it could bring improvement of relations of Arab nations with Israel.

Applauding the Vatican's ef- forts to unite various sects of Christianity, the king told a news conference he hopes the pontiff's pilgrimage "will herald a new era" between Moslems and Christians.

The 27-year-old monarch shrugged off the fears of some Arab nations that the Pope's visit to Jordan and Israel had political overtones or might lead to Vatican recognition of Israel.

While the pontiff's trip may better relations between Mos- lems and Christians, the king said, the problem with Israel is a different one and despite the Pope's visit to both countries "I can hardly see how rela- tions could improve."

Pulaski Co. Senators File Again

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two Pulaski County senators, Max Howell and Dan Sprick, opened the 1964 Democratic election ticket today by filing for re- election with the secretary of state.

Howell will seek his fourth term, Sprick his second.

The ticket for the primary election closes at noon April 29.

Asked why they were filing so early, Sprick said, "Some one has to kick this thing off and it might as well be us."

Howell, president pro tem of the state Senate, is the third- ranking state officer behind the governor and lieutenant gover- nor. He was elected to the Ar- kansas House in 1940 and was first elected to the Senate in 1950.

Pulaski County's third sena- tor, Ellis Fagan, died last year. A number of persons have been reportedly preparing to run for his office. No one was filed or announced.

Unity Expert Is Added to Papal Party

By BENNET M. BOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP) — A Vatican Christian unity expert was added today to the official party that will accompany Pope Paul VI on his Holy Land pil- grimage.

The addition of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Jan J. Willebrands, Dutch-born secretary of the Vatican's Secretariat for Pro- moting Christian Unity, fol- lowed agreement by the Pope and Orthodox Patriarch Athen- agoras I of Constantinople (Is- tanbul) to meet during the pil- grimage.

Vatican officials said there would be no formal announce- ment here about the meeting of the Pope with Patriarch Athen- agoras—the first encounter be- tween a Roman Catholic pontiff and an Orthodox patriarch in five centuries.

Athenagoras announced the meeting on Monday.

Clear, Cold Forecast for Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Winter whirled into Dixie with the new year, dumping snow, sleet and freezing rain.

Covering parts of Alabama and Mississippi with 10 to 16 inches of snow, the storm slashed northward with its icy burden. Gales struck the coast of North Carolina.

The icy mantle stretched from the Gulf of Mexico to northern Ohio and Pennsylvania. Tem- peratures plunged in New York hitting 15 below at Watertown.

Unused to the snow, larger Southern cities found them- selves virtually paralyzed on New Year's Eve when it began piling up.

Many roads were closed or al- most impassable in the Deep South.

Snowmen dotted lawns in Ala- bama, Georgia, Louisiana and

Hinkle Heads Development Commission

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Carl Hinkle, retired Air Force col- onel and former commander of the Little Rock Air Force Base, took office today as executive director of the Arkansas Indus- trial Development Commission.

He was greeted at the office in the state Capitol by Richard A. DuVall, who served as acting director during the months since William P. Rock resigned to go into private business. Du- Vall now is assistant director.

Asked what he thought his big problem would be, Hinkle said, "More industry for Arkansas."

Hinkle was hired five months

Mississippi. Birmingham got 8 inches of snow, but the biggest snowfall was at the northeast Alabama city of Huntsville, which reported 16 inches.

Meridian, Miss. had 15 inches. The snow ranged from 2 to 3 inches in Atlanta and up to 5 inches in Kentucky and Tennes- see.

Hazardous driving warnings were in effect for parts of 23 states, including northwest Flor- ida.

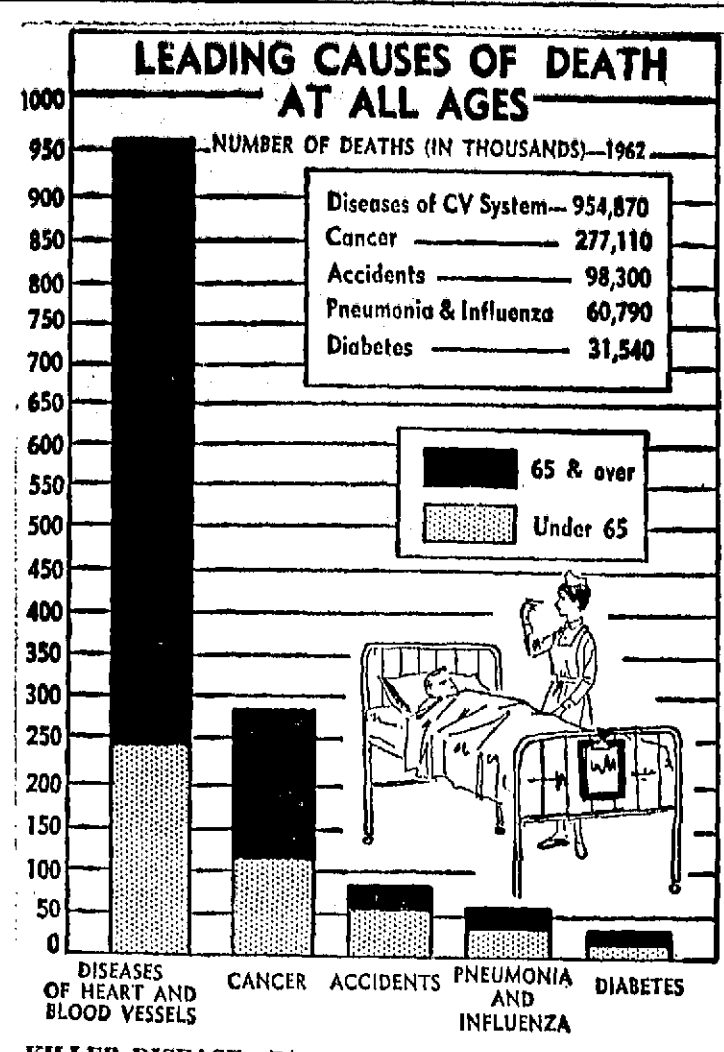

In New Orleans, snow and slush from nearly 4 inches of snowfall froze, making walking a hazard. Most streets were fairly clear.

In central and north Alabama, roads were open only to car with chains or snow tires.

Many of Atlanta's big down- town hotels and motels were al- most filled with local residents unable to get home New Year's Eve. The snow and ice forced cancellation of garbage col- lections.

Kentucky had four to eight inches of snow. Schools in four mountain counties were closed. Snow and ice hit North and South Carolina.

Slow improvement for the Southeast was predicted by the Weather Bureau with precipi- tation moving eastward or north- eastward. Clearing and warmer was forecast for Thursday.

KILLER DISEASE

Diseases of the heart and circulatory system (cardiovascular) killed nearly four times as many people as cancer in 1962, latest year for which data is available. One out of every two deaths, or 54.3 per cent, were due to this cause. The ranking of the five death causes in Newschart was the same for both the age group under 65 and the group 65 and over, except that below the age of 65 diabetes was outranked by suicide and cirrhosis of the liver. Data from National Office of Vital Statistics.

Snow Collapses Building, 3 Hurt

JAMESTOWN, N.Y. (AP)—A 3-story building collapsed Wednesday and flying debris injured three persons in a pass- ing automobile.

Police said heavy snow and ice caused the roof of the build- ing to collapse.

Injured were Ira Wellman, 66, of Jamestown; his wife, Hel- en, 41, and their son, Daniel, 8. Firemen and police used back- saws and crowbars to pry open the automobile and free them.

Stocks Move Up, Trading Is Active

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market made its 1964 debut with a general advance today. Trading was moderately active early this afternoon.

Drugs were strong, inspired by the admission of G. D. Searle to trading on the New York Stock Exchange. Searle has a long record as a growth stock in the over-the-counter market.

Motors, steels, airlines, rails, utilities, electronics, coppers of- fice equipments and building materials joined in the rise.

Oils, dampened by a drop in Texaco, were mixed. Electrical equipments eased and tobaccos were spotty.

Brokers regarded the ad- vance as a continuation of the New Year's Eve rally which saw re-investment demand out- weighing the lag end of tax- loss selling, profit-taking and switching for tax purposes as the old year died.

The background to the mar- ket was encouraging. Gains in retail sales were predicted and steel scrap prices rose.

The Associated Press aver- age of 60 stocks at noon was up .8 at 286.3 with industrials up 1.4, rails up .5, and utilities un- changed.

The Dow Jones industrial av- erage at noon was up 2.60 at 765.55.

Searle opened at 79, repre- senting a gain of 8 1/2 over its last bid price on the counter market. Later it cut about 4 points from its price.

International Telephone rose also 2 points following an esti- mate of annual sales of $1.4 bil- lion, a record.

IBM ran up 10 points, making a 1963-64 high.

Prices advanced in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate and U.S. govern- ment bonds were mixed.

PITCHFORK ON WHEELS—City folk driving past farms in the northern United States and Canada may be startled in the future to see a haystack chasing a tractor. Thanks to the ingenuity of South Dakota farmer-mechanic Fritz Lahman, farmers can take the drudgery out of hauling hay a forkful at a time from field to barn lot for winter cattle feeding. In top photo, the "5-Minute Stack Mover" is shown backing up to a haystack. A cable placed around the stack is winched in, pulling the stack onto the carrier. Below, the huge haystack weighing many tons is then hauled off with a saving of many man hours of work. To farmers, that's not hay.

Rocky Flies to Hampshire in Campaign
ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York resumes his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination Friday, ending a moratorium he imposed after the assassination of President Kennedy Nov. 22.

Rockefeller flies to New Hampshire, where he has entered the state's first-in-the-nation presidential primary March 10. He speaks Friday night to a Young Republicans' meeting at Portsmouth, and will visit Concord, the capital, Saturday.

Three other trips to New Hampshire are on Rockefeller's schedule this month.

On Jan. 27, he'll fly to California for appearances in Marin County and Los Angeles. California's presidential primary is in June.

Rockefeller is the only announced candidate for the nomination. However, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona says he'll announce Friday whether he will seek it.

Rockefeller and his wife received about 1,450 visitors at the annual open house at the executive mansion.

Rockefeller said he had no intention of making a nationwide television and radio appearance to discuss his divorce and remarriage.

Replying to a reporter's question, he denied a Washington Post story that he would make such an appearance later this month. The newspaper quoted Rockefeller supporters as saying the governor felt he had

Texas Victor Over Navy for U.S. Title

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS (AP)—Smirking and word-eating were the major activities in the vicinity of the Cotton Bowl today.

The satisfied smile was pasted on the face of national champion Texas.

If there was any doubt—and Navy, for one, had some—that the Longhorns were the No. 1 college football team in the land, the Texans removed it swiftly with a 28-6 trouncing of the Middles Wednesday.

The word-eating was not completely confined to Navy, although there haven't been so many red faces around the fleet since they laughed at Gen. Billy Mitchell when he said he could sink battleships with airplanes.

There were those who had called the Texas offense: "Left tackle, right tackle—and punt."

And the ones who said that Texas "doesn't beat you, it bores you to death."

Coach Darrell Royal's Texas team came up with a fabulously resourceful offense, guided by a quarterback named Duke Carlisle.

Carlisle, whose real name is Emmett Augustus Carlisle III, took Texas 78 yards in six plays from the opening kickoff. That stunned the No. 2 ranked Middles almost as much as the way it was done.

Carlisle sent his runners into the line twice and then ran for 19 yards. Three plays later he threw to wingback Phil Harris on a play that covered 58 yards for a touchdown.

In the second quarter, Carlisle passed on first down from his own 37, again to Harris, again for a touchdown.

Then the Texas defense detached the football from Navy's Jolly Roger Staubach on the Navy 34, and Carlisle took the Longhorns in again. He scored this one himself on a keeper from nine yards out.

That made it 21-0 at the half and the 75,504 people sitting in 45 degree sunshine might as well have staged their game-end traffic jam early.

Carlisle played a little less than three quarters and established a Cotton Bowl record for total offense, 267 yards. He passed for 213, and was the team's leading rusher with 54.

North, South Teams Play on Saturday

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Two workouts were planned for both the North and South teams today in preparation for Saturday's Senior Bowl football clash.

Both Coach George Wilson of the North and South tutor Tom Landry said their squads would be bolstered by the arrival of players who participated in New Year's Day bowl games.

The Yankees elected Boston College quarterback Jack Cannon and Holy Cross center Jon Morris as their co-captains.

The election Wednesday followed a 10-minute head-knocking pass protection drill.

Utah Coach May Change His Tune

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's about time for Utah basketball Coach Jack Gardner to start changing his tune.

The likeable coach of the Running Redskins had good reason for such preseason comments as these:

"We know we have a long way to go."

"I can't be optimistic about this year compared with many others."

"We have to be considered in the role of underdogs."

Sure, it's very understandable. He had only one regular returning from last season's team, was loaded with sophomores and appeared to be hurting for size.

So now the Utes have an 11-1 record, finished their pre-conference season with a 87-68 upset of fourth-ranked Cincinnati Wednesday night and are gunning for national recognition.

The swift, spirited Utes barged out to a 39-31 halftime lead, increased the margin to 12 points after intermission then fought off a Cincinnati rally that closed to within two points, 66-44, with less than two minutes to go.

Only a handful of games were scheduled Wednesday as the colleges took a deep breath from the rigors of the holiday tournaments before jumping into conference play.

In the only other major games Georgia edged Alabama 49-47, Louisville romped over Marquette 85-67, Rhode Island upset Memphis State 68-66 and Toledo routed Kent State 75-57.

Collegiate Powers to Probe Rules

NEW YORK (AP)—The official forecast is for calm, smooth sailing, but squalls are a definite possibility for the week-long annual convention of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, governing body for most of the nation's collegiate athletics.

The convention proper doesn't open until next Monday, but various coaching groups and associations begin their meetings Friday, including the baseball and track groups.

And it's from one such group—the Football Rules Committee—that one of the major issues could develop. That involves the controversial substitution rule, used this season for the first time.

The committee has circulated a questionnaire concerning the rule and is expected to make the results public, possibly along with recommendations for a change.

In all 22 groups and committees have meetings scheduled either before or during the convention of the association that now counts a membership of 612 colleges and universities.

Sugar Put Ahead of Cuba Speeches

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Havana Radio indicates the forthcoming sugar cane harvest has a higher priority on the Cuban army's time than today's Havana observance of Fidel Castro's 10th anniversary in power.

A broadcast Wednesday, monitored in Miami, said "we thought of saluting this anniversary with a military parade, but decided that to frighten the reactionaries wandering around, it would be best to hold a rally of workers and peasants."

Appleton Off to Honolulu, as Pros Wait

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas tackle Scott Appleton, skillfully dodging the buck-passers, is on his way to the Hula Bowl in Honolulu, where he likely will find palm trees waving in the breeze and dollar bills waving in his face.

Appleton, an All-America was named the outstanding lineman in the Cotton Bowl after the Longhorns' 28-6 victory over Navy Wednesday, sidestepped the professional football talent scouts after the game. Asked which way he was leaning, Appleton said:

"I haven't decided a thing."

Appleton is the No. 1 catch still remaining in the check-book war between the National and American football leagues. He is the only first round draft choice in either league not committed.

The Pittsburgh Steelers traded flanker Buddy Dial to Dallas for the NFL rights to Appleton. The Houston Oilers hold the AFL rights.

Appleton became the last remaining No. 1 pick up for grabs when the NFL signed the much-pursued Nebraska linemen, All-America guard Bob Brown and tackle Lloyd Voss, after the Cornhuskers' 13-7 Orange Bowl victory over Auburn.

Brown signed with the Philadelphia Eagles and Voss with the Green Bay Packers, giving the NFL signed contracts from 12 of their 14 first-round draft picks. Brown also was the No. 1 pick of Denver in the AFL, and Voss was second round selection of the AFL's New York Jets.

The NFL has lost only one of its first-round selections to the AFL—Southern California quarterback Pete Beathard, who passed up Detroit to sign with the Kansas City Chiefs. The AFL has signed only two of its eight first-round selections—Beathard and Ohio State fullback Matt Snell, by the Jets.

In addition, Oakland's AFL entry claims it has signed No. 1

Illinois in Its 3rd Rose Bowl Victory

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) Rugged Big Ten champion Illinois still owns a perfect Rose Bowl record, riding to success on the shoulders of a brawny fullback for the third time in the granddaddy of all bowl games.

It was Jim Grabowski, a 207-pound sophomore who did it Wednesday, leading Illinois to a 17-7 come-from-behind triumph of Big Six titlist Washington.

To 100,000 fans, sun-drenched in 85-degree weather and countless TV fans, perhaps the first quarter injury of Washington quarterback Bill Douglas might have been the determining factor in the puncturing of Huskie Coach Jim Owens' Rose Bowl charm.

It was not a game of spectacular offense and it had a lot of errors.

There were 10 fumbles, five by each team, and three stolen Washington passes. But it also had Grabowski ripping through the stubborn Huskies for 125 yards on 23 carries.

That alone wore down Washington, which led 7-3 at halftime, and won Grabowski the outstanding player of the game award given by the Helms foundation.

Assistant Coach Bill Tate won the same honor for his hero's role in Illinois' 40-7 Rose Bowl rout of Stanford in the 1952 game. Fullback Tate carried 20 times for 150 yards in that one-sided contest.

But Tate acknowledged in the gleeful Illini dressing room later:

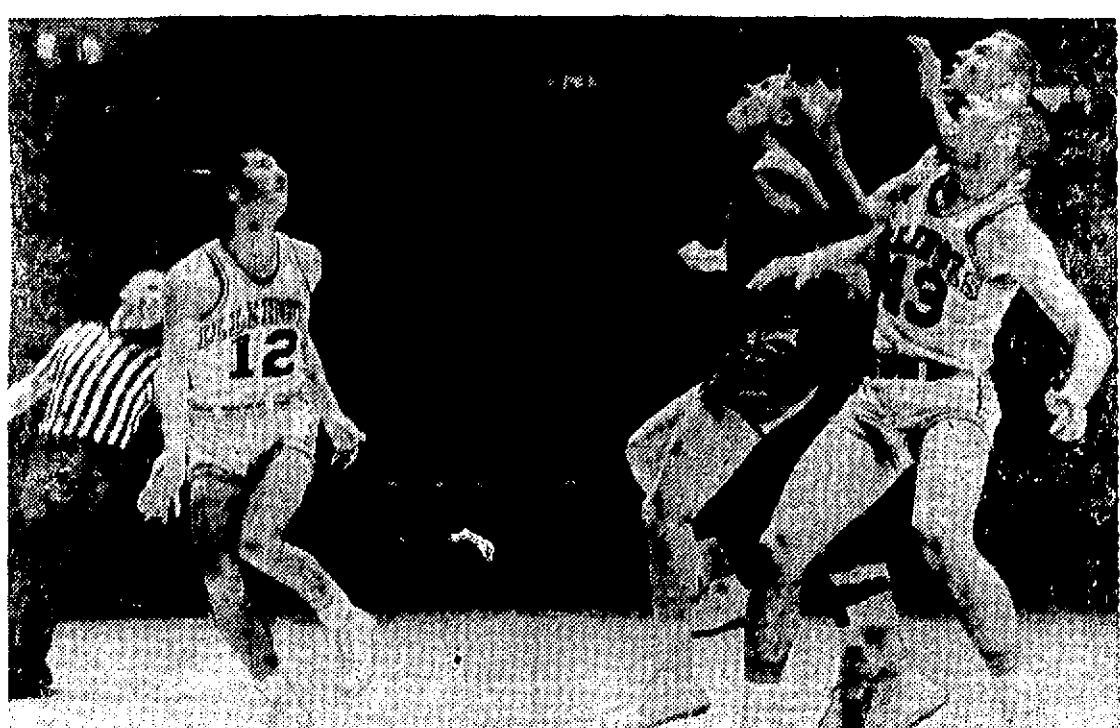

"Grabowski was better than I was and maybe better than Julie Rykovich was in the 1947 Rose Bowl game."

In the 1947 Illinois 45-14 belting of UCLA, fullback Rykovich and Buddy Young shared outstanding player honors.

Douglas severely - wrenched left knee, coming after he guided Washington 41-yards on an opening drive, brought in still rusty quarterback Bill Siler.

Although a regular in the 1962 season, Siler had a tough time of it with three interceptions, two of which were snagged by defensive star George Donnelly.

pick Tony Loric, Arizona State halfback, Baltimore in the NFL says it also has a signed contract from a Loric.

and led to both Illini touchdowns in the second half.

Donnelly's final fumble late in the third quarter came on the Illini 14, not only squashing the final Huskie threat but also precipitating an 85-yard Illinois scoring drive.

The turning point for Illinois may have come in the first quarter when Washington, already hurt by the loss of injured fullback Junior Coffey, lost quarterback Bill Douglas with a dislocated left knee and reserve fullback Mike Kuklenski with a broken left leg.

Bill Siler took over for Douglas and engineered a second quarter touchdown drive, capped by Dave Kopay's seven-yard run. Illinois got three points back on Jim Plankerton's 32-yard field goal, then intercepted a Siler pass in the third quarter to set up the go-ahead touchdown.

George Donnelly picked off the pass and Mike Taliaferro eventually lobbed a pitch out to Warren, who dashed the final two yards. Grabowski, eating up time and yardage, rushed 11 times in the final drive before cracking over from the one.

Grabowski was tapped as the game's outstanding player after gaining with 125 yards in 23 carries.

Alabama kept banging away at Mississippi, but never was able to get beyond the six-yard line. However, Davis, who hasn't run a play from scrimmage since he was injured as a high school quarterback, supplied the points. His 46-yarder and the 48-yarder that followed were the longest in major bowl history.

The Rebels, meanwhile, were unable to score until the fourth quarter when Perry Lee Dunn connected with Larry Smith on a five-yard touchdown pass. Mississippi threatened twice more—Dunn was stopped on the two in a fourth down situation and Billy Piper intercepted a pass in the waning seconds.

At the Orange Bowl, Claridge broke through the line on the second play of the game and sprinted 68 yards for a Nebraska touchdown. Before the half ended, Thiesen had kicked 31 and 36 yard field goals for a 13-0 lead. But it was Auburn that dominated play after that.

All-America Jimmy Sidle started the Tigers moving, sweeping wide on a 13-yard dash for the first touchdown. Then he ran and passed Auburn 69 yards to the Nebraska 11, where the Cornhuskers stiffened, and knocked down Sidle's fourth down pass with 1:25 left.

Laundromat Thug Stuffs Boy in Dryer

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—A frustrated robber stuffed a teen-age youth into a coin-operated clothes dryer Wednesday night.

James Bumgardner Jr., 17, spent more than 30 cramped minutes in the machine before another customer rescued him.

The youth said he was alone in the building, preparing to wash a load of clothes, when a man approached him from behind and demanded money.

Told the teen-ager was broke, the thug made him stoop over in front of an open dryer and shoved him in, shutting the glass door.

A startled Mrs. Mary Hammons freed Bumgardner.

He was pale but apparently unhurt.

"At least the man didn't drop a quarter in the machine," he said. "I would have fried alive."

Players Ask for Hornung's Return

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — The National Football League Players Association meets today for the first of two sessions and is expected to recommend immediate reinstatement of suspended players Paul Hornung of Green Bay Packers and Alex Karras of the Detroit Lions.

Pete Retzlaff of the Philadelphia Eagles, president of the association, said the recommendations would be voted on and passed on to league Commissioner Pete Rozelle in New York.

Big Nebraska Edges Auburn by 13 to 7

By BEN FUNK

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Nebraska's big Cornhuskers, playing before an eager audience of American and National Football League scouts, muscled their way to a 13-7 victory over smaller Auburn in the Orange Bowl Game New Year's Day.

And when the final whistle blew, professional contracts were waved in the faces of numerous players—especially the pro-size Cornhuskers—who had been forbidden until after the game from entering into negotiations in the play-for-pay leagues.

Nebraska needed all its muscle to save the win over Auburn against a fierce late surge led by Tigers quarterback Jimmy Sidle.

With two minutes to go, Sidle had the Tigers on the Nebraska 11 in a furious bid for a winning touchdown, but a fourth down pass was batted away and the Cornhuskers escaped with the first victory a Big Eight team ever scored over a Southeastern Conference foe in seven Orange Bowl games.

For a time it appeared that Nebraska, the national champion rushing team, was going to use its 16-pounds-a-man weight advantage up front to crush the SEC runners-up.

On the second play, with a formation Nebraska designed for use in a short yardage situation, quarterback Dennis Claridge broke the bowl's record for a long run by speeding 68 yards to a touchdown.

Twice more in the first half, Nebraska thrust close to the Auburn goal to set up field goals by Dave Theisen of 31 and 36 yards. Up to then, with the Nebraska ends containing their wide runs, the Tigers hadn't made any kind of a threat.

But the second half was a vastly different story. Nebraska's awesome running attack began to crumble against the small but courageous Auburn line and Sidle finally found the way to get the Tigers moving.

Sidle hit Buck Waid with a 28-yard pass, then swept 13 yards wide to his left for the first touchdown that put Auburn back into the game with only a six-point deficit.

association, said the recommendations would be voted on and passed on to league Commissioner Pete Rozelle in New York.

55,000 West Berliners Join Kinsmen

BERLIN (AP)—About 55,000 West Berliners welcomed the new year with relatives in East Berlin today.

Many straggled back to the Red wall at the 5 a.m. deadline, as a new crowd lined up in the darkness to cross into East Berlin.

Some West Berliners with passes for both days remained behind the wall.

The holiday visiting arrangement ends next Sunday and Berliners on both sides of the wall hope the West Berlin and East German governments will negotiate a renewal.

When the agreement went into effect Dec. 19, it was the first time since Aug. 13, 1961 that West Berliners generally were allowed to cross the barrier.

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China ushered in the new year by publishing 15 new poems of Mao Tse-tung, describing the mainland as "a picture of prosperity," and taking a slap at critics.

The new poems were in a collection of 37 by the Chinese Communist leader.

An editorial in today's official Peking People's Daily reviewing the year said "The Chinese people are full of confidence when they look ahead at the beginning of this new year." It said "everywhere is a heartening picture of prosperity."

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP)—After 165 years, English has ceased to be the government language of this former British colony.

It was replaced by the Sinhalese Indo Aryna language, spoken by eight million of Ceylon's 10 million inhabitants.

ROME (AP)—Premier Chou En-lai of Communist China today is in Albania, only Communist nation in Europe that has taken China's side in the Peking-Moscow ideological battle.

Albanian leaders welcomed Chou's visit as a move to strengthen the alliance. On the eve of the visit, Albania's Communist party leader, Enver Hoxha, denounced Soviet Premier Khrushchev as "a traitor to Communism."

Chou arrived Tuesday in the Albanian capital, Tirana, by air from Rabat, Morocco.

Premium Tax on Insurance Challenged

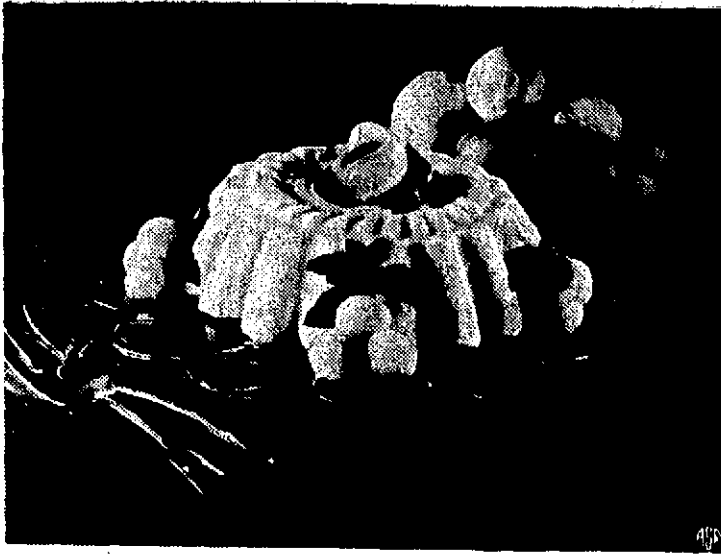

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Two suits attacking a 1963 law which increased the premium tax on out-of-state insurance companies which fail to meet certain investment conditions were filed Tuesday in chancery court.

Plaintiffs are the Life and Casualty Co. of Nashville, Tenn., and the Glen Falls Insurance Co. of Glen Falls, N.Y.

The cases were assigned to Chancellor Marry O. Reed and he, ordered them consolidated for trial on request of attorneys for the plaintiffs.

Defendants are state Insurance Commissioner Harvey Combs and Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, the officials charged with enforcing the law, Act. 527. The act increases the state

Low-Calorie Lemon-Lime Snow

The Borden Kitchen developed this dessert using cupboard shelf items, including low-calorie nonfat dry milk. The whipping quality of this milk makes it a natural ingredient to combine with gelatine, in preparing the "snow" dessert. It helps give the mixture a smooth, fluffy texture. An additional advantage in using nonfat dry milk, its low cost, makes this specialty an inexpensive one to prepare. And it's perfect for calorie-counters, too!

Here's a tip to remember when chilling gelatine mixtures, such as this dessert. Oil the mold lightly before adding the mixture, and the gelatine will be easy to remove from the pan when firm.

Lemon-Lime Snow

(Makes 8 to 10 servings)

- | | |
|---|---------------------------------|
| 1 envelope (1 tablespoon) unflavored gelatine | 1/4 cup lemon juice |
| 1 cup cold water | 1/4 cup lime juice |
| 3/4 cup sugar | 1 tablespoon lemon juice |
| 1 cup hot water | 1/2 cup Starlac nonfat dry milk |

Add gelatine to only 1/4 cup of the cold water. Let stand 5 minutes to soften. In medium-size bowl, combine softened gelatine, sugar and hot water. Stir until dissolved. Blend in 1/4 cup lemon juice and the lime juice. Cover and chill in refrigerator until consistency of unbeaten egg white. Stir frequently while mixture is chilling. In small mixing bowl, combine remaining 1/4 cup cold water, 1 tablespoon lemon juice and nonfat dry milk. Beat with electric or rotary beater 8 to 10 minutes, or until stiff. Beat chilled gelatine mixture until light and foamy. Fold in whipped nonfat dry milk. Pour mixture into lightly oiled 1 1/2 quart mold. Chill in refrigerator 1 1/2 to 2 hours, or until firm. To serve, unmold and garnish with fresh fruit.

Fireworks Blow Up a Supermarket

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP)—

Five persons were killed and 16 were injured Tuesday night when exploding fireworks and fire leveled a two-story supermarket in north Charleston.

Charleston County police said the fireworks were stored in a back room of Livingston's Supermarket, a cement block and frame building used as a distribution point for fireworks during the holiday period.

It was not known how much of the explosive material was stored in the building, nor had authorities pinpointed the cause of the explosion.

A tractor-trailer loaded with more explosives was moved away from the rear of the building after the first blast shook the supermarket.

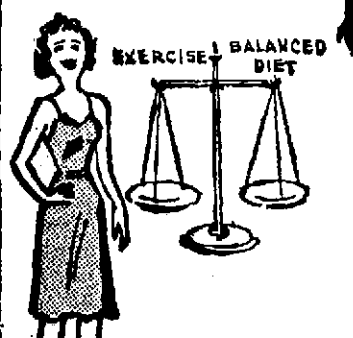

The force of the blast knocked out windows, doors and part of the roof of a nearby home. Plate-glass windows in at least two other buildings were broken.

Killed were Aaron Herman Fine, 47, Savannah Beach, Ga.; Julius Gaillard, 17, Robert McCoy, 16 and Johnny Brown, 15, all of Charleston and an unidentified Negro boy. Their bodies were found in the ruins of the premium tax of fire and casualty insurance companies from 2 to 2 1/2 per cent and the tax on Life and disability insurance companies from 2 1/4 to 3 per cent. It has a provision for forgiving the increased tax for insurance firms which invest in Arkansas.

Cure for Fad Diets

To find "an easy way to lose weight," overweight Americans spend millions of dollars each year for pills and potions, machines and gadgets, and special dietary foods. All they lose is their money.

Walking five miles each day not only helps the body achieve better tone but also uses about 300 calories. Try it to lose 15 pounds in 6 months.

To lose weight, you must take in fewer calories than you need. But in cutting down, beware of unbalancing your nutritional intake. Play safe and include foods from the following four groups daily: Milk and dairy foods (two 8 oz. glasses a day or equivalent for adults); Meat, fish, poultry and eggs (2 or more servings from this group daily); Vegetables-Fruits: Four servings daily, including a citrus fruit or vegetable high in Vitamin C and a dark green or deep yellow vegetable for Vitamin A; Bread-Cereals: Four or more servings.

The overweight person must face the facts. Weight control should be a lifetime goal. A plan of balanced eating and exercise developed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, provides sensible solutions.

Protest of Blackface Ignored

By GEORGE ESPER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The annual New Year's Day Mummers parade, threatened with demonstrations to protest planned blackface comic participants, was postponed today until Saturday because of threatening weather.

Some 1,800 policemen had been braced for possible violence if the parade went on but snow began falling about 5 a.m. and the forecast called for possibly up to three inches mixed with sleet and freezing rain.

The postponement thus gave officials additional time to work out some solution to the threatened demonstrations.

Louis Smith, northeast regional chairman of the Congress of Racial Equality had said Tuesday night that CORE planned to have pickets at the parade.

Hayes Nearing 9-Second Record

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The nine second 100 yard dash still eludes Bob Hayes, although he showed on a rain-soaked track Wednesday that he's hot on the trail.

The husky Florida A&M junior duplicated before 5,000 fans the 9.1 second dash, submitted for a world record, which he ran last year at St. Louis. Considering the fact that rain had pelted University of Miami's cinder path for two days, few had expected Hayes to approach that

Big Lineup, for Movies' Oscar Derby

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The entries are in and the race is off—the 36th Oscar derby.

The Academy Awards won't be handed out until April 13, but Dec. 31 marked the end of the qualifying time and the campaigns are beginning to roll.

For best picture, there are two front runners and several dark horses. The contest for best actor is unusually strong, for best actress unusually weak. The races for acting support and direction seem lively affairs.

Best picture—At this point it appears to be an Anglo-American contest between the flamboyant "Tom Jones" and the dramatic "America, America." If bigness counts—and it sometimes does with academy voters—there will be chances for such epics as "Cleopatra," "The Great Escape," "The Cardinal" and "How the West Was Won." Looming large artistically are "Lilies of the Field," "Hud" and "Love With a Proper Stranger," or, if comedy is considered, "Charade" and "Thrill of It All."

Best actor—There are a number of memorable performances to choose from: Rex Harrison in "Cleopatra," Sidney Poitier in "Lilies of the Field," Paul Newman in "Hud," Albert Finney in speed at the Orange Bowl Track and Field Meet.

"Tom Jones," Stathis Giallelis in "America, America," Steve McQueen in "Love With a Proper Stranger."

There is talk of giving Cary Grant ("Charade") his long deserved recognition—he has had only one nomination, no awards.

Best actress—Trollops, unwed mothers and neurotics lend sameness to the female star race. Among the leaders are Natalie Wood for "Love With a Proper Stranger," Leslie Caron for "The L-Shaped Room," Geraldine Page for "Toys in the Attic," Shirley MacLaine for "Irma La Douce." Susannah York may be cited for "Tom Jones."

Also possible: Elizabeth Taylor's controversial "Cleopatra."

Best supporting actor—As usual, the field is rich with candidates. Past winner Hugh Griffith ("Ben-Hur") is the leader for his rollicking squire in "Tom Jones." Others being mentioned include: Melvyn Douglas "Hud"; Tom Bosley and Herschel Bernardi, "Love With a Proper Stranger"; Walter Brennan, "How the West Was Won"; Eddie Albert and Bobby Darin, "Capt. Newman, M.D."; Lee J. Cobb, "Come Blow Your Horn"; Edgar Buchanan, "Move Over, Darling"; John Huston, "The Cardinal."

Best supporting actress—Another interesting race with such possibilities as Margaret Rutherford and Maggie Smith, "The V.I.P.'s"; Lilla Skala, "Lilies of the Field"; Linda Marsh, "America, America"; Janis Paige, "The Caretakers"; Patricia Neal, "Hud"; Thelma Ritter in anything.

Berlin Wall Traffic Is Quite Brisk

By JOHN O. KOEHLER

BERLIN (AP)—A new rush of West Berliners crossing the wall is expected with only four more days remaining on the agreement allowing visits to East Berlin.

A total of 172,740 West Berliners greeted the new year with relatives behind the wall, pushing past 600,000 the number of visitors to the Red sector since the visits began Dec. 19.

The huge flow of West Berliners placed new pressure on Mayor Willy Brandt's West Berlin government to discuss an extension of the visiting arrangement with the Communist East German regime.

The agreement expires at midnight Sunday.

Brandt has said he will try to renew the agreement, which has given West Berliners their first chance to see relatives in East Berlin since the Communists built the wall in August 1961.

He also is under opposite pressure from Allied and West German officials and West Berlin newspapers who regard any negotiations with the East German regime as recognition and fear such talks can only strengthen the Communist concept of a divided Germany and a neutralized West Berlin.

Brandt describes the pass agreement as a purely technical, humanitarian arrangement without the implications of

A gay and happy throng returned from East Berlin early New Year's Day after welcoming 1964 with a frenzy of song and drink. East Berlin's Karl Marx Allee was aglow with fireworks.

As stragglers met the extended 5 a.m. deadline for returning on New Year's morn, new visitors lined up for visits during the day. Several thousand persons had passes for both days and were allowed to spend the night in East Berlin.

West Berlin Mayor Stirs U.S. Fears

By ENDRE MARTON

WASHINGTON (AP) — High administration officials are expressing concern with what they describe as West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt's dealings with Communist East Germany.

Officially, Richard I. Phillips, the State Department's press officer, declined to comment on reports indicating that Brandt is ready to negotiate with the East Germans on an extension of arrangements allowing West Berliners to pass through the wall and visit relatives in East Berlin.

Ever since the East German regime agreed on Dec. 17 to let West Berliners visit the city's eastern sector during the holidays, some administration specialists have been predicting that the Communists will claim this as a sign of Western recognition of their status.

The United States did not object to the project, which permitted reunions of many families in the divided city.

Accordingly, the administration would not object to an informal extension of the Christmas pact. But its concern is that, as one official put it, "the thing might get out of hand" and could be interpreted by the Communists as a de facto recognition of the East German government as a sovereign state.

West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard apparently shares U. S. concern. After returning to Bonn from his meetings with President Johnson he told a news conference that the West Berlin city government should not get out on a limb in deals with East Germany. He said it should not have all the responsibility for handling the question of visits across the Berlin wall.

Previously he had said that the Communists' political intentions in their opening of the wall became immediately apparent when the East Germans used their talks with West Berlin officials to bring up the so-called three-state concept.

The concept, promoted by the Soviet Union, calls for three Germanys: the federal republic, the East German republic, and the "free" city of West Berlin. The arrangement would destroy Western goals of reunification of the divided country, and was rejected by the West.

Arkansas College Beats Tennessee

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas College led nearly all the way Tuesday night as the Highlanders took a 74-66 basketball victory over Martin Branch of the University of Tennessee in a game at Batesville.

The Highlanders led 35-28 at half behind the scoring of Lavaghaun Robertson who finished the game with 32 points. Ronnie Armstrong and Jerry Combest each got 13 points for the Martin, Tenn., school.

Subway and Bus Strike Is Canceled

By RICHARD F. WHALEN

NEW YORK (AP) — It was touch-and-go, but New Yorkers weathered another threatened strike against the city's subways and buses on New Year's Day.

The biennial New Year's Eve question, "Will they run or won't they?" wasn't answered until 4½ hours after the original strike deadline. They ran.

It was the third time since 1957 that Michael J. Quill, president of the AFL-CIO Transport Workers Union, and Transit Authority negotiators pulled a cliff-hanger.

The settlement also brought an agreement between two political foes. Democratic Mayor Robert F. Wagner and Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

The added cost of the new 2-year contract, estimated at $38.6 million to $42 million, will be absorbed by the city. Rockefeller will support legislation to authorize the transfer of some city assets to the Transit Authority and speed up reimbursements for electricity, among other things.

The fare will remain at 15 cents, at least for a year. Quill dropped his chief demand, a 32-hour, 4-day work week, in return for a pay boost for the 35,000 workers.

David L. Cole, chairman of the mayor's transit labor board, said the employees will receive an 11-cent an hour raise in 1964, 8½ cents more on Jan. 1, 1965 and another 8½ cents on July 1, 1965. Fringe benefits to cost 7 cents an hour will be added Jan. 1, 1965, he said.

Average pay under the old contract was $2.83 an hour for a 40-hour, 5-day week.

it capitulated to Nazi Germany in 1940. He said France had gained peace and political stability in the past year.

He described European unity as a condition for "a truly concentrated political, economic and strategic understanding with America."

He also defended his decision to keep Britain out of the Common Market, saying he opposed "the admission of a new member which could not go by the rules."

De Gaulle expressed hope that the Soviet Union and other Communist bloc nations in Europe would continue to improve relations with the West. His failure to mention Communist China, which has been seeking closer French ties, was regarded as a pointed omission.

De Gaulle said the population of France, once plagued by a low birthrate, grew by nearly 600,000 last year, and now totals 48 million.

"Many will one day see a France of 100 million inhabitants," he said.

Lauds Drive to Control Drop-Outs

By FRAN KCORMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson applauded today an experimental campaign to discourage young people from dropping out of high school.

"The results are far better than expected," he reported.

The President urged that the pilot program, conducted in 53 communities, be expanded.

Johnson, spending New Year's Day at his ranch home, issued a statement that gave highlights of a report from U.S. Education Commissioner Francis Keppel on the 1963 back-to-school drive.

"The 1963 results show that where local effort was made, one out of two actual or potential drop-outs returned to school—and nine out of 10 are staying in school," Johnson said.

Declaring that "any community in America that wants to lick the drop-out problem can do so if a real effort is made locally," Johnson said he hopes 1964 will see programs inaugurated in at least half of all school districts.

The late President John F. Kennedy initiated the pilot program, using $250,000 of federal funds.

Johnson said the money "will be repaid many times over in the more productive lives of these young men and women who are continuing their education."

Education matters were one of Johnson's concerns Tuesday too, as he ordered Keppel to hold January seminars in five cities to acquaint educators with education laws enacted at the 1963 session of Congress.

Johnson said Congress made "a distinguished and unparalleled record in the education field." He said it was imperative that the new laws be put into operation quickly and effectively.

Keppel will visit Atlanta, Ga.,

Dallas, Tex., New York, Chicago and San Francisco.

On other fronts Tuesday, Johnson:

—Signed a $4.4-billion public works bill, although he said one provision is unconstitutional. The President said a section requiring the Panama Canal Co. to get advance approval for property transfers from appropriate congressional committees will be interpreted as a request for information.

In other words, the committees will be kept "fully informed" but the executive branch won't give them veto power over property transactions.

—Exercised a pocket veto that killed a bill to require that all imports of wood products and sawed lumber be stamped with the name of the exporting country. Canada had objected strongly to this measure.

—Conferred with a four-man team he had sent to Kansas City, Mo., to brief former President Harry S. Truman on national

Ex-Tomboy Is Now Maid of Cotton

By JOHN LANG

MEMPHIS (AP) — A one-time tomboy who blossomed into a radiant beauty is the 1964 Maid of Cotton, a winning goodwill ambassador for King Cotton.

Katy Sue Meredith, a 21-year-old hazel-eyed charmer from Andalusia, Ala., won the title Monday night in competition with 19 other cotton belt beauties.

Carolyn Adair of Memphis, formerly of Dumas, Ark., was named first alternate, and second alternate honors went to Lorene Ormond of Forest, Miss.

Among the final five were Barbara Beaman of Nashville and Karen Carlson of Shreveport, La.

Katy Sue rushed onto the stage with a beaming smile and a pert swing of her shoulders to receive the crown and mantle and a bouquet of snowy white cotton bolls.

The new maid stands a statuesque 5 feet, 8 inches and weighs a curvy 130 pounds. She's crowned with lustrous looks.

Brains match beauty in the new maid. She has a 95 average at Alabama College where she's a senior majoring in home economics. After college she plans to teach and then maybe go to graduate school to study nutrition.

Katy Sue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Meredith, couldn't make the trip because Meredith is recovering from a heart attack suffered last month. Meredith is a rancher and ex-sheriff. Katy Sue has one brother and three sisters.

"They never thought I'd win," beamed Katy Sue, "But now I'm sure they're glad I did."

Maid Katy Sue says she was a real tomboy when she was younger and "the boys left me alone. One time a boy tried to kiss me and I threw a brick at him."

The first official appearance of the 1964 Maid will be Wednesday at the Cotton Bowl football game at Dallas. During her reign she will tour the world, boosting the cotton industry.

Prizes include a complete wardrobe featuring cotton and the keys to a new convertible when she returns from her tour. Katy Sue will be a star member of the court at the Memphis Cotton Carnival in May.

Coffee Flavors a Luxury Pie

Coffee-lovers will delight in this creamy-rich Coffee Velvet Pie, exquisitely flavored with instant quality coffee. The accompanying beverage is also instant quality coffee brewed in a carafe to bring out its full deep-bodied flavor.

Coffee Velvet Pie
3 tablespoons instant quality coffee
2 egg yolks
1 1/2 cups milk
1/4 cup cold water
1 envelope (1 tablespoon) unflavored gelatin
1/4 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 egg whites
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup heavy cream
1 baked 9-inch pie shell, cooled
Whipped cream

Combine instant coffee and egg yolks in saucepan. Gradually add milk and water, stirring constantly. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture coats spoon. (Do not boil.) Remove from heat. Pour over gelatin and 1/4 cup sugar and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add vanilla. Chill until slightly thickened.

Beat egg whites with salt until foamy throughout. Add 1/4 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating after each addition until sugar is blended. Continue beating until mixture will form in peaks. Fold into gelatin mixture. Whip the cream; fold into egg white mixture. Pour into pie shell. Chill until firm. Garnish with whipped cream. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Rockefeller to Discuss His Divorce

WASHINGTON (AP) — New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, the only announced Republican presidential candidate, plans to go on nationwide television and radio later this month to discuss his divorce and remarriage, the Washington Post said today.

The Post quoted Rockefeller supporters as saying he had decided he has "nothing to lose and everything to gain" by taking his case directly to the public and "letting them decide whether he ought to be denied the right to serve his country" because of his domestic situation.

In Albany, N.Y., Robert L. McManus, the governor's press secretary, said that some thought had been given to nationwide television and radio programs by Rockefeller and that availability of time had been discussed with the networks.

But McManus added that no final decision had been reached on whether the broadcasts would be made, when they would be made, or the content.

"I think it's highly unlikely" that Rockefeller will make a broadcast along the lines reported by the Post, McManus said.

Rockefeller and his first wife, Mary Todhunter Rockefeller, were divorced in 1962. Last May he married the former Margaretta Fidler (Happy) Murphy, mother of four children, about one month after she obtained a divorce from her husband.

The Rockefellers announced Tuesday they are expecting a child in early June. The New York governor had five children by his first marriage.

According to the Post, negotiations are under way with all three television networks to carry Rockefeller's appeal for "tolerance and understanding" toward his divorce and remarriage, which will be one in a series of five question-and-answer interview sessions.

According to the Post dispatch, by staff writer Maxine Cheshire, Rockefeller's plan is said to have the blessing of his first wife. The paper says she reportedly is on very friendly terms with the governor and has given her approval for him to say "anything within the bounds of good taste" that will give an honest evaluation of their parting and the years that preceded it.

Diphtheria Case Is Confirmed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The State Health Department said Monday that one suspected diphtheria case proved not to be the disease but another confirmed case took its place.

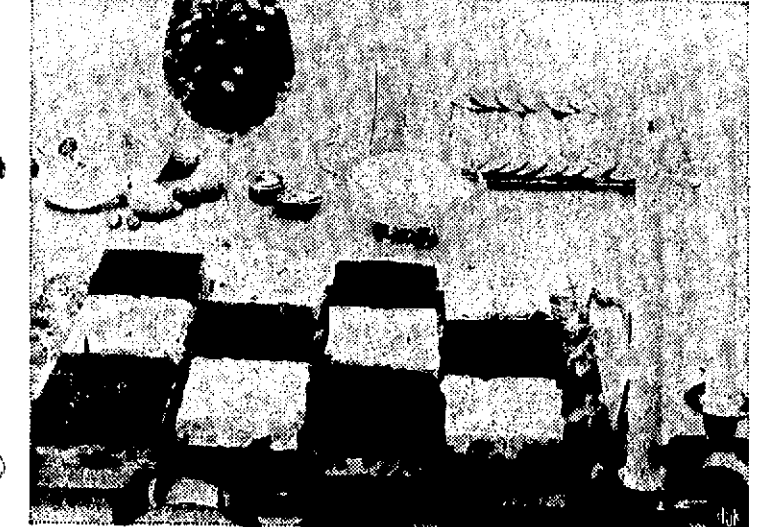

Dr. William Bunch Jr., said a Mountain Home girl became the state's fourth diphtheria case while the suspected case in a woman hospitalized at Siloam Springs turned out to be a serious throat infection.

Bunch said the Mountain Home girl became sick after attending a University of Arkansas Basketball game at Fayetteville recently.

He said a routine check is underway to find possible cases of diphtheria among people with whom the girl came in contact. He said no other cases had been reported and health authorities think the girl was exposed to a carrier from nearby Adair County, Okla., where a diphtheria epidemic broke out several weeks ago.

Bunch said the girl is recovering.

Checkerboard Salad for a Party

We don't suggest that you play checkers on this board, but it does make a gay addition to any meal with its checks of red and white. Delicious too—it is made with a combination of fruits and walnuts mixed with real mayonnaise.

Checkerboard Souffle Salad

1 (1-pound) can whole cranberry sauce
3 cups boiling water
2 (3-ounce) packages yellow, red or orange fruit flavored gelatin
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Heat cranberry sauce; strain. Reserve berries; mix liquid with boiling water; then add gelatin, stirring until completely dissolved. Mix in lemon juice and salt. Chill mixture until thick enough to mound slightly when dropped from spoon. Reserve 1½ cups thickened gelatin mixture; pour remaining mixture into chilled 13 x 9½ x 2-inch pan. Refrigerate. Add mayonnaise to reserved 1½ cups gelatin; beat with rotary beater until light and fluffy. Fold in cranberries, chopped fruit and nuts. Spoon evenly over clear gelatin in pan. Chill until firm. Cut into 12 squares; unmold. Arrange squares, inverting half, checkerboard fashion on salad greens. Chill until ready to serve. Makes 12 servings.

Recall Jetliner on Bomb Hoax

BOSTON (AP) — A bomb hoax forced a giant Alitalia jet airliner to turn back over the Atlantic Tuesday night and land at Boston.

The four-engine DC8 was over Halifax, N.S., an hour out of New York's Kennedy International Airport, when the airline's New York office got an anonymous telephone tip that a bomb was aboard.

The craft, carrying 35 passengers and a crew of 10, was bound for London, Madrid and Rome.

A state police bomb squad searched the plane but found no bomb.

People in News Over the World

LONDON (AP) — When it comes to the twist, the shake or the hully gully, Britain's Prince Charles is "fab" on his feet, reports band leader John Nockolds.

Nockolds, 21-year-old leader of the Pagans, said the 15-year-old heir to the British throne and his sister, Princess Anne, recently had a royal romp at a dance given by Maj. and Mrs. John Bagge for 100 teen-agers.

"I saw Prince Charles twist and he was fab (ulous)," said Nockolds.

WOODSIDE, Calif. (AP) — Shirley Temple turned a New Year's Eve party into a surprise golden wedding anniversary celebration for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Temple.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Margaret Goldwater, 21-year-old of Sen. and Mrs. Barry Goldwater, plans to marry Richard Arlen Holt of Northridge, Calif., June 27 in Phoenix.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Miss America, Donna Axum of El Dorado, Ark., had to forego her place of honor in Miami's glittering Orange Bowl parade. She spent New Year's Eve in bed at her Miami hotel, on doctor's orders. Miss Axum still suffers from the effects of smoke inhalation. She was in the Roosevelt Hotel at Jacksonville, Fla., where a fire killed 22 persons Sunday.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Roxane Berard, acting as her own attorney, told a Los Angeles Traffic Court jury she hadn't made an illegal left turn as charged. She said she had merely stopped her car for a pedestrian.

The verdict: not guilty.

Everything on the Same Day

AURORA, Colo. (AP) — Mrs. Florine Cherry became a mother Dec. 29, 1939. She gave birth to her second child on the same date 12 years later.

The first, a daughter was named Jackie Sue, became Mrs. Roger Deal and her first child, a boy, arrived on Sunday, Dec. 29.

Forrest City Woman Named

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus appointed Mrs. John Cannon of Forrest City Tuesday to a five-year term on the board of the state Training School for Negro Girls at Fargo. She succeeds Charles Dyson of North Little Rock whose term had expired. Faubus said Dyson asked not to be reappointed.

Viet Nam Is Given U. S. Guarantee

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — President Johnson assured South Viet Nam today the United States will stand beside the embattled Asian nation as long as U.S. men and arms are needed in the struggle against Communist guerrillas.

Johnson also said the United States will oppose any effort to neutralize Viet Nam, a solution France's President Charles de Gaulle appears to favor.

In a New Year's message to Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh, chief of the military government, Johnson said:

"The U. S. government shares the view of your government that 'neutralization' of South Viet Nam is unacceptable. As long as the Communist regime in North Viet Nam persists on its aggressive policy, neutralization of South Viet Nam would only be another name for a Communist takeover."

Johnson said he had been apprised by Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge about "the serious situation" in South Viet Nam's war against the Viet Cong guerrillas.

"The United States will continue to furnish you and your people with the fullest measure of support in this bitter fight," Johnson said.

"We shall maintain in Viet Nam American personnel and material as needed to assist you in achieving victory."

Johnson predicted South Viet Nam would become increasingly capable of driving the foe from the field, allowing U. S. personnel to be "progressively withdrawn."

Johnson said he was pleased to learn from McNamara, who recently visited South Viet Nam, of vigorous operations planned

Atom Reactor Considered at Fayetteville

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission took the first step today toward construction of a test atomic reactor at Fayetteville, Ark.

The commission signed a memorandum of understanding with Southwest Atomic Energy Associates which is preliminary to negotiations for a contract for construction of such a reactor.

The memorandum was considered to be a commitment by the Atomic Energy Commission that it will participate in the project.

The reactor would be used in research into way of reducing costs of producing power with atomic energy.

Southwest Atomic Energy Associates is made up of 16 private power companies. It will build the reactor in cooperation with General Electric Co. and Karlsruhe Laboratory of West Germany. Southwest Atomic Energy Associates then wants the AEC to pay for research and development. The total program is expected to cost $25 million.

The reactor would be located on a 620-acre tract 20 miles southwest of Fayetteville.

The power companies hope the plant will be completed by late in 1966.

It was announced last May that the SAEA, General Electric and Karlsruhe would provide the experimental reactor at a cost of about $12.5 million. The research would cost about another $12.5 million—the figure it is hoped the AEC will provide.

The research program would take three years.

In mid May a hero's welcome awaited Benedict when he arrived at the Commander-in-Chief's headquarters in Morris-town, N.J. An honor guard was drawn up in the road, and General Washington walked on the guest's left in a gesture of marked deference as Benedict inspected the guard. The band then played a final flourish, and Washington invited Arnold into the house.

Together they walked into the parlor, and Benedict, always slightly ill at ease in the presence of the austere Virginian, remained standing until the Commander-in-Chief waved him to a seat.

"Philip Schuyler was right when he wrote me that you possess an infinite ability to perform the spectacular," Washington said with a faint smile. "I've received four accounts of your engagement with General Tryon, and all of them would be unbelievable — had our general in command been anyone other than Benedict Arnold."

Benedict drew a sheaf of papers from his inner coat pocket. "I've prepared an official report to you, sir." He wanted to add that it was the last he would write, but instinct told him to keep his temper.

The Commander-in-Chief read the report in silence, then placed it carefully on a table. "I assume that your figures are accurate, as always, and that British casualties were four times as great as our own?"

"The estimate is conservative, sir."

Washington rose, crossed to a desk and took a parchment scroll from a drawer. "You placed the Congress in an embarrassing position, Arnold. I'm told there were some red faces in Philadelphia when news of your twin battles was received there. Your promotion to the rank of major general was voted unanimously on May 2," he added quietly.

Benedict stood stiffly at attention, saluted and accepted the scroll. "I'm pleased, sir." "Personally I'm delighted," Washington reached into the drawer again and held up a pair of gold epaulettes.

Benedict stormed the Continental Congress with the same vigor he had demonstrated in battle. Twenty-four hours after he arrived in Philadelphia, Richard Henry Lee of Virginia offered a resolution praising his character, and declaring that his conduct had been above reproach. The Congress voted its unanimous approval of the measure that same afternoon.

But an unexpected snag developed in the finance committee. It still refused to pay Benedict the sum of $55,000 until he submitted precise proof that he had spent the money on wages and supplies for his troops.

Benedict found himself unable to offer the proof that the committee demanded; he was bitterly angry because his word was not accepted without question.

Even more annoying was the Congress' obstinate refusal to reinstate his seniority. A number of other officers who were being treated unfairly resigned their commissions. Col. John

7 True Bills Point to a Town Scandal

SALLISAW, Okla. (AP) — A Sequoyah County Grand Jury returned seven indictments against 21 persons or firms and sharply criticized the handling of some affairs in the small town of Roland, Okla., near the Arkansas border, Tuesday.

Names of those indicted and the charges against them were not revealed pending the serving of warrants.

County Atty. Katherine Ingle said it will be Monday before a judge will be available to handle arraignment of defendants. She said warrants will not be served until then.

The jury was called on a petition asking an investigation of a housing project and a waterworks program in Roland.

In its report, the jury said it had "found that an intolerable, disgusting and deplorable act of enormous proportions exists in the town of Roland." This, it said, involves not only individuals but also firms and corporations.

The report said the jury found no evidence that any actions of the town's councilmen "were for profit or were committed with the willful intent to deprive the town of Roland of the utilities they so earnestly desire to construct."

Mrs. Ingle said most of the indictments were for felony charges.

Stark of the Vermont district became so disgusted that he went home and became a brigadier general in the militia.

Benedict, after brooding for several days, followed the colonel's example by resigning from the army on July 11. Not waiting for the Congress' acceptance, he rode to Morris-town at once to say goodbye to General Washington before returning to civilian life in New Haven. He found headquarters in an uproar, but the Commander-in-Chief interrupted a staff conference to receive him in a small library on the second floor of the house.

"You can't resign, Arnold. General St. Clair has evacuated Ticonderoga!"

Benedict was stunned. "Only a fool would abandon that fort, sir. It's impregnable. And," he added tartly, "St. Clair is a senior major general who enjoys the full confidence of the Congress." — Washington rose from his chair and towered above the younger man. "Are you willing to make a sacrifice, Arnold? I can't blame you for being disgusted, but the army needs you, the country needs you. I know no one else who can take command in the field for Schuyler, and I've sent an urgent message to the Congress on the subject."

"What do you want me to do, sir?" Benedict's voice trembled.

"Suspend your resignation until the campaign in the north has been won. You'll leave today," Washington extended his hand.

Benedict grasped it. "I'll do it, General, for you — and for the good of the service."

THOSE FROSTY WIVES
AGAIN!

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: Tell "In Between" that if she took care of her husband as a wife should there'd be no second woman in his life. Divorce rates would plummet like the stock market on a berish day if frigid wives thawed out.

"In Between" is probably the kind that snaps, "Go away and let me sleep," whenever her man feels romantically inclined. I know for I am married to just such an iceberg. I'm a good provider, love our two children and would be a faithful husband given half a nod of encouragement. My wife's only display of affection is a peck on the cheek when I go to work mornings and come home evenings.

Last night was typical. It had been a tough day at the office and I craved a little warmth and understanding so I drifted in the kitchen while the wife was getting dinner. Impulsively I gave her a hug. Lord, did that bring down the roof! Our home though finely furnished and about the best looking on our block is no home to me. Don't you think a man like myself who gives his family the best deserves the affection of a loving wife? —Henry

Dear Henry: "Yes, indeed!" cry I in a loud voice but mighty few women will go along with this. And here's the reason why: a man can be a good provider and still not earn the whole-hearted affection of his wife. She may go through the motions of her wifely duties yet withhold part of her heart because for some reason unknown to her husband, he has failed her.

A woman's whole being revolves around romance, affection, emotion, concern (which means love) and devotion. When a man truly understands this and acts accordingly by treating her gently, giving evidence of many different expressions of his love, remembering her fondness for certain tokens such as flowers, candy, perfume or even some silly little thing, he will then discover the depths of her affection and the heights of her passion. Marital love can be compared to a savings account; the more you invest, the more interest you get back.

Human nature is so unpredictable that the most contented husband (or wife) could skip down the primrose path given a certain set of conditions. It isn't the single act of infidelity which wreck's a marriage it's the constant pursuit of adultery. Our Victorian background being what it is, we in the United States can't take a relaxed view of the husband-mistress combination so acceptable in other countries. We must work harder to make our marriages long, sweet and loving. Some women just aren't made that way. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "A Happy Marriage."

Dear Helen: My boy friend and I BROKE UP. Now he's trying to find me other boy friends. I can and have found a new one but still he trots up fresh entries. How do I tell him in a nice way to mind his business? —Patches?

Dear Patches: The next time you meet, smile pleasantly and say, "Please stay out of my business." If you wish to be more specific, tell him sweetly that you appreciate his interest in your personal life but don't need his assistance in choosing your friends.

Dear Helen: I am a nurse on part-time duty in a doctor's office. This Christmas, Doctor gave me a lovely present in addition to several gifts of lesser value during the year. I feel I should send him something in return but my budget is limited. It troubles me that anything I buy he could afford many times over and above the price. It embarrasses me to give him something inexpensive. Yet I want to do the proper thing. —Nurse

Dear Nurse: Your thoughtful employer would undoubtedly be embarrassed if you presented an expensive gift to him. His gifts tell you he values your professional assistance. Under the rules of office etiquette, your

WHEATON, Ill. (AP)—Tony Parrilli, 23, former University of Illinois football star and line-backer for the Washington Redskins pro team, was shot to death early today during a New Year's Eve party at a bowling alley.

Capt. Herbert Mertes of the Du Page County sheriff's office, said Parrilli was shot accidentally by a police official who was attempting to break up a scuffle at the Willowbrook Lanes in Willowbrook, a Du Page County community southwest of Chicago.

Tips for Job Seekers

In 1962 private employment agencies placed more than six million people in white collar and executive jobs at total annual salaries exceeding $30 billion.

Today private employment agencies are taking active roles in community life by sponsoring job therapy clinics for youths and senior citizens, and work closely with schools and anti-dropout programs.

This change is largely due to the efforts of the National Employment Association, the only unified spokesman for the agencies. This association of 800 agencies in 250 cities, was formed in 1960 to act as a "watchdog" and arbiter of the ethical code established by the members: to serve as a research center and clearing house for information and education; and to encourage projects in the public interest.

The National Employment Association has developed the following tips for job seekers:

1. A reputable private agency is the most efficient way to bring together a potential employee and employer at the highest possible salary.
2. Many private employment agencies have guidance and advisory counselors who are specialists. There is no charge for their counsel.
3. Do not sign any agreement or contract for employment until you have read it and understood it thoroughly.
4. Never pay an employment agency "in advance." A placement charge is due only after you accept the job. Fee schedules are established by law and vary from state to state.

5. If a job is "fee-paid," it means the company has paid the fee, in which case you pay the agency nothing. Approximately 25% of jobs listed today are fee-paid; trend is upward!

6. If you leave or are fired from the job you take, you will still owe the agency money. This amount varies with circumstances. Avoid misunderstanding by discussing these possibilities in advance.

7. Refunds of overpayment on adjusted accounts should be in cash or in credit, with the option left to you as the applicant.

8. Be sure that all oral agreements are included in your written contract.

9. If an agency gives you little attention, sends you on interviews for jobs in which you have expressed disinterest, or sends you to a company that does not have any openings, don't deal with them. You can also report them to NEA Headquarters, or to your local Better Business Bureau.

10. Honesty with the employment agency counselor especially regarding past experience and salary earned will reap the greatest dividends for you.

The National Employment Association's new 1963 directory listing of its member agencies and area of specialization may be obtained without cost by writing to headquarters at 260 Southfield Avenue, Detroit, Michigan.

Meningitis Case in St. Francis Co.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Health Department said Tuesday that a two-year-old boy of the Blackfish Community in St. Francis County has contracted meningococcal meningitis. A Health Department spokesman said the boy is being treated at a Memphis hospital and others who have been in contact with him are being given preventive treatment.

head injuries during the scuffle and was treated at a hospital.

One of the owners of the bowling alley is Mike Dittka, star end for the Bears.

Mertes said Parrilli was slain by a single shot accidentally fired by Chief of Police Robert G. Winthers of Willowbrook as he and another policeman sought to break up a quarrel in a washroom involving Parrilli, Marconi and a third man who was not identified.

Mertes said he was told Parrilli and the unidentified man got into an argument over football and that Marconi went to the washroom in an effort to end the quarrel.

Mertes said Winthers related a scuffle developed between the three men. The two policemen, on duty at the bowling alley, entered and tried to break it up.

Winthers related he struck Marconi on the head with his pistol and the gun discharged, fatally wounding Parrilli.

Mertes said Parrilli and Marconi were attending a private party of about 25 couples in the bowling lanes.

It was not learned immediately if other football players were among those present.

Marconi caught two passes Sunday in the Bears' triumph over the New York Giants for the National Football League championship and is one of the team's top players.

Parrilli went to the Washington Redskins after graduating from the University of Illinois but was out of action most of the past season because of a shoulder injury.

He was 6 feet tall and weighed 225 pounds.

President Is Visitor at Four Parties

By FRANCES LEWINE

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson saw the old year out at four parties 65 miles from his ranch home but flue back to the family fireside before the new year was an hour old.

Johnson embarked on his New Year's party hopping in Austin dressed in a gray suit, blue shirt and black bow tie with yellow stripes.

He said wife Lady Bird preferred to stay at the LBJ Ranch and watch movies with nine of her relatives who gathered there for the holiday, while he made his four-hour sojourn in Austin.

The President stayed at home long enough for a steak dinner before journeying to the Texas capital. In Austin, the President spent about an hour at a private club called "The 40 Acres" adjacent to the University of Texas campus, where his older daughter, Lynda Bird, is a sophomore.

Then his police-escorted motorcade drove to the home of a friend, Austin attorney Frank Irwin, secretary of the Texas Democratic party.

The next stop was the Driskill Hotel downtown, where Johnson first went to a party thrown for the White House staff by the White House press corps. He spent more than an hour there before proceeding to the Headliners Club in the same hotel.

The clock struck midnight while Johnson was greeting the headliners — newsmen, businessmen and community leaders.

The President plans to spend today with his wife and in-laws and following through on the old Southern custom that one who eats blackeyed peas on New Year's Day will have luck for the rest of the year.

While the President and the First Lady stayed at the LBJ Ranch with relatives, their two teen-age daughters were off to the Cotton Bowl classic in Dallas between the University of Texas and Navy.

His First Hot Dog!

Taking a man-size bite of his first American hot dog as he gazes intently towards the gridiron, is Viscount Hinchinbrooke. This young Britisher, who will one day be the eleventh Earl of Sandwich, is a direct descendant of the inventor of the sandwich!

Hinchinbrooke recently visited the U.S. as special "sandwich consultant" for The Seven-Up Company. He attended a preview of the "7-Up International Sandwich Gardens," one of the major pavilions at the forthcoming New York World's Fair. This pavilion will introduce "international sandwiches" representing the four corners of the globe.

Viscount Hinchinbrooke told how his ancestor, the fourth Earl of Sandwich (1718-1792), was such an inveterate gambler that he put his meat and bread together "so that he could eat with one hand and go on playing cards with the other." Soon, according to Hinchinbrooke, all of the Earl's cronies at the Beefsteak Club were calling for their meat and bread to be served like Sandwich's.

The Viscount will return to America next spring for the opening of the 7-Up International Sandwich Gardens, where some 18,000 sandwiches a day will be served.
